TRINITY SUNDAY
(Mass Propers available in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

“Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, amen.” With these ancient and venerable words of adoration of the Triune God, Creator of all things, Saint Francis began one of his most memorable sermons for the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, Trinity Sunday. These words of praise and adoration crown each psalm of the Divine Office and so many other prayers, and indeed what could be more appropriate?

Perhaps more than any other sentiment, it is gratitude which we owe God for revealing to us the august doctrine of His Trinitarian Being. Could man by the power of reason alone ever have discovered the existence of the Three Persons in One Divine Nature? Certainly not. Dom Guéranger teaches us that:

“When the Book of Genesis tells us that God spoke in the plural, and said: “Let Us make man to Our image and likeness,” the ancient Jew bowed down and believed, but understood not the sacred text; the Christian, on the contrary, who has been enlightened by the complete revelation of God, sees, under this expression, the three Persons acting together in the formation of man; the light of faith develops the great truth to him, and tells him that, within himself, there is a likeness to the blessed Three in One. Power, understanding, and will, are three faculties within him, and yet he himself is but one being.”

Trinity Sunday marks the formal end of Paschaltide, this joyful season of celebrating Christ’s Resurrection and Ascension. The hymn “Salve Regina” returns today, as well as the thrice-daily prayer of the Angelus in place of the chanted “Regina Caeli.” Additionally, before High Mass on Sunday the “Asperges me” replaces the “Vidi Aquam.”

I had an excellent retreat and would like to thank all of you for your prayers, which I’m sure helped a great deal. We had excellent conferences on topics such as the love of the priestly heart for the Holy Eucharist and for Our Blessed Mother, Mary. We were reminded, as we so often need to be, that our effectiveness in reaching souls is largely dependent on the fervor of our interior life and love of God. The retreat closed with Solemn Pontifical Vespers, a true gem of the Divine Office. I was glad to get a week of rest and extra time for prayer, especially heartfelt prayer before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. It was also a joy to get to spend some time with confreres I now see only a few times a year, remembering our days in seminary together.

Would you be interested in doing a bit of part-time volunteer work for the Oakland apostolate, or would you know someone who might be? Putting this bulletin together and preparing it for Flocknote is a task unto itself, and there are certain moments in the year when a bit of extra help would be appreciated. Please contact me by email if you are interested in helping in this capacity.

Members from the Oakland Apostolate who attended the Society of the Sacred Heart Retreat, six of whom who received the Cross of St. Francis de Sales.

The Feast of Corpus Christi, one of the most solemn feasts of the liturgical year, is this Thursday, June 16. All are encouraged to assist at Mass on this day and give thanks for Our Lord’s gift of His Eucharistic flesh and blood which we eat and drink in every Holy Communion. There will also be the External Solemnity of this feast on Sunday, June 19. There will of course be the traditional Eucharistic Procession and Benediction following the 12:30 Mass.

Catholic young adults (ages 18-35) take note! The Institute’s Catholic young adult group, Sursum Corda, is having the National Retreat from Friday, July 8 – Monday, July 11 at the Colombiere Conference and Retreat Center in Clarkston, Michigan. Will you consider attending? It’s so important to cultivate good friendships with peers who share your Catholic Faith, just trying to do their duties and live a full life (including wholesome fun and recreation) in a world growing more and more hostile to the Church seemingly with each passing day. Please see the attached announcement for more information. You can register here: <https://form.jotform.com/icksp/sursum-corda-annual-retreat-2022>.

An update from St. Margaret Mary Parish: the parking lot and Kozina Hall will be open only on weekends (Saturday and Sunday) for the rest of the month of June, as roof repairs are taking place.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Norman
