Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

Octaves were already a part of the Jewish ritual. In the Traditional Mass we have many octaves for the important feasts of the Church's liturgical year. Easter is the greatest of all feasts. Dom Gueranger reminds us about this eighth day: "Our Risen Jesus gave an additional proof of His wishing the Sunday to be, henceforth, the privileged day. He reserved the second visit He intended to pay to all His disciples for this the eighth day since His Resurrection. During the previous days, He has left Thomas a prey to doubt; but, to-day He shows Himself to this Apostle, as well as to the others, and obliges Him, by irresistible evidence, to lay aside His incredulity. Thus does our Saviour again honour the Sunday. The Holy Ghost will come down from heaven upon this same day of the week, making it the commencement of the Christian Church: Pentecost will complete the glory of this favoured day."

Let us continue to keep Sunday holy. Sundays which should always remind us of the Resurrection and the eternal rest of heaven.

As always, rest assure of my prayers for you at the altar.

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,

Canon Andrew Todd
Pastor
