Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

During these difficult and troubling times we live in, the last thing we must do is give in to the temptation of despair or anger. The devil always takes advantage of difficult times to increase his attacks. Be on guard.

With the additional time we may have over the coming weeks, use it for prayer. In Lent we are called to increase our prayer, now we have no excuse that we do not have time since so many distractions have been taken away from us. Pray and do penance! In the apparitions of Fatima, our Blessed Mother reminded the three children of the importance and necessity of doing sacrifices and praying for those who need conversion. While we do not know what the death toll may be at the end of this calamity, one soul lost to hell is a greater loss than the death of thousands. It is not death which we must fear but mortal sin which is punished by hell. Let us pray and suffer for the lost so that they may see the true purpose of why we were created and to repent of their ways.

Rest assured of my prayers for you during these times. You are remembered at my Masses.

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,

Canon Andrew Todd

Pastor
