Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

The past four years have indeed been rewarding years of my priesthood. I will take with me many great memories and more importantly great spiritual bonds with all of you. As we are reminded during this month of November of the consoling dogma of the Communion of Saints, we are united through the Mystical Body of Christ and His Grace to one another, both living and deceased. There is no physical distance which separates the members of the Church. I ask you to continue to pray for all priests, and if you remember, for me. Rest assured of my prayers, most especially at the altar, for you.

I want to take the opportunity to thank everyone for their generosity. The prayers, cards, gifts, and wishes are truly appreciated. Thank you! Masses will be offered for you in thanksgiving.

You will be in good hands with your new shepherd. He will continue to do what any good priest is called to do, to preach and live the Faith of our Fathers.

In Christ the King,
Canon Andrew Todd
