PROPER OF THE MASS

INTROIT

Blessed be the Holy Trinity and undivided Unity: we will give glory to Him, because He has shown His mercy to us.

Lord, our Lord, how glorious is Your Name over all the earth!

Glory be to the Father . . .

Blessed be the Holy Trinity . . .

COLLECT

Almighty, eternal God, Who hast given Thy servants, in the confession of the true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of that majesty to adore its unity, grant, we beseech Thee, that in the firmness of this faith we may ever be protected from all harm.

EPISTLE

Romans XI, 33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible are His judgments and how unsearchable His ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been His counselor? Or who has first given to Him, that recompense should be made him? For from Him and through Him and unto Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever, amen.

GRADUAL & ALLELUIA

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, Who look into the depths from Thy throne upon the Cherubim. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven, and praiseworthy forever.

Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and praiseworthy forever. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Matthew XXVIII, 18-20

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you all days, even unto the consummation of the world.

OFFERTORY VERSE

Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit: because He has shown His mercy to us.

SECRET

We call upon Thy Name, O Lord, and beseech Thee to hallow this sacrificial offering and through it to make us an eternal offering to Thee.

COMMUNION VERSE

We bless the God of heaven, and before all the living we will praise Him; because He has shown His mercy to us.

POSTCOMMUNION

May the reception of this sacrament, O Lord our God, and the profession of our faith in the eternal holy Trinity and undivided Unity, benefit us for the salvation of body and soul.

COMMUNION

Those who have difficulty with the steps and kneeling, are invited to receive holy communion in the front pews in front of the Lady and St. Joseph Altars. The priest will come to you after distributing to those at the rail. Thank you.

COMMENTARY ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

by Dom Guéranger

The mystery of the blessed Trinity, which was taught us by the mission of the Son of God into this world, and by the promise of the speedy sending of the Holy Spirit, is announced to men by these solemn words, uttered by Jesus just before his ascension into heaven. He had said : He that shall believe, and shall be baptized, shall be saved; but he adds, that Baptism is to be given in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Henceforward man must not only confess the unity of God, by abjuring a plurality of gods, but he must, also, adore a Trinity of Persons in Unity of Essence. The great secret of heaven is now a truth which is published through the whole world.

But, whilst humbly confessing the God whom we have been taught to know as he is in himself, we must, likewise, pay a tribute of eternal gratitude to the ever glorious Trinity. Not only has It vouchsafed to impress Its divine image on our soul, by making her to Its own likeness ; but, in the supernatural order, It has taken possession of our being, and raised it to an incalculable pitch of greatness. The Father has adopted us in his Son become Incarnate ; the Word illumines our minds with his light ; the Holy Ghost has chosen us for his dwelling : and this it is that is expressed by the form of holy Baptism. By those words pronounced over us, together with the pouring out of the water, the whole Trinity took possession of Its creature.
