PROPER OF THE MASS

INTROIT

The Lord came to my support. He set me free in the open, and rescued me, because He loves me.

I love Thee, O Lord, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

Glory be . . . The Lord came to my support . . .

COLLECT

Grant, O Lord, that we may always fear and love Thy holy Name, for Thou never failest to guide those whom Thou firmly establishes in Thy love.

EPISTLE

I John III:13-18

Beloved: Do not be surprised if the world hates you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. In this we have come to know His love, that He laid down His life for us; and we likewise ought to lay down our life for the brethren. He who has the goods of this world and sees his brother in need and closes his heart to him, how does the love of God abide in him? My dear children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue, but in deed and in truth.

GRADUAL & ALLELUIA

In my distress I called to the Lord, and He answered me. O Lord, deliver me from lying lip, from treacherous tongue.

Alleluia, alleluia. O Lord my God, in Thee I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and rescue me. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Luke XIV:16-24

At that time, Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable: A certain man gave a great supper, and he invited many. And he sent his servant at supper time to tell those invited to come, for everything is now ready. And they all with one accord began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, 'I have bought a farm, and I must go out and see it; I pray you hold me excused.' And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am on my way to try them; I pray you hold me excused.' And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' And the servant returned, and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house was angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and the crippled, and the blind, and the lame.' And the servant said, 'Sir, your order has been carried out, and still there is room.' Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and make them come in, so that my house may be filled. For I tell you that none of those who were invited shall taste of my supper.'

OFFERTORY VERSE

Return, O Lord, save my life; rescue me because of Thy kindness.

SECRET

May the sacrifice we are about to offer unto Thy holy Name, O Lord, make us pure, and day by day help us to live a more heavenly life.

COMMUNION VERSE

I will sing of the Lord, He has been good to me; and I will sing to the Name of the Lord the Most High.

POSTCOMMUNION

We beseech Thee, O Lord, that having received Thy gifts, each partaking of this sacrament may increase within us its saving effects.

The family will receive friends from 2 to 8pm on June 4 at McMahan-Coyne-Vitantonio Funeral Home, 6330 Center Street, Mentor.

COMMENTARY ON TODAY'S EPISTLE by DOM GUÉRANGER

These impressive words of the Beloved Disciple could not have a more appropriate occasion for their being addressed to the faithful, than this joyous Octave. God's love for us is both the model and motive of that which we owe to our fellow-men; the divine charity is the type of ours. I have given you an example, says our Lord, that, as I have done unto you, so ye may also do. If then, he has gone so far as to lay down his life for us, we, also, should be ready, if occasion so required, to lay down ours, in order to procure our neighbor's salvation; and still more ready to help him, to the best of our power, when he is in need; we should love, not in word, or in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.
