PROPER OF THE MASS

INTROIT

Hear, O Lord, the sound of my call: be my helper: forsake me not., despise me not, O God, my Savior.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?

Glory be . . . Hear, O Lord . . .

COLLECT

O God, Who hast prepared good things as yet unseen for those who love Thee, pour a burning love into our hearts, so that we, loving Thee in and above all things, may obtain Thy promises which surpass all desire.

EPISTLE

1 Peter III:8-15

Beloved: Be all like-minded in prayer, compassionate, lovers of the brethren, merciful, reserved, humble; not rendering evil for evil, or abuse for abuse, but contrariwise, blessing; for unto this were you called that you might inherit a blessing. For, 'He who would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no deceit. Let him turn away from evil and do good, let him seek after peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and His ears unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.' And who is there to harm you, if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you suffer anything for justice sake, blessed are you. So have no fear of their fear and do not be troubled. But hallow the Lord Christ in your hearts.

GRADUAL & ALLELUIA

Behold, O God, our protector, and look on Thy servants. O Lord God of Hosts, hear the prayers of Thy servants.

Alleluia, alleluia. O Lord, in Thy strength the king is glad; in Thy victory how greatly he rejoices! Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Matt V:20-24

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Unless your justice exceeds that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not kill'; and that whoever shall kill shall be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be liable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool!', shall be liable to the fire of Gehenna. Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift before the altar and go first to be reconciled to your brother; and then come and offer your gift.

OFFERTORY VERSE

I bless the Lord Who counsels me; I set God ever before me; with Him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

SECRET

Be propitious to our supplications, O Lord, and graciously receive these oblations of Thy servants and handmaids, that what each one offered to the glory of Thy name, may profit all to salvation.

COMMUNION VERSE

One thing I ask of the Lord; this I seek: to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

POSTCOMMUNION

Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we whom Thou hast filled with the heavenly gift may be cleansed of our hidden sins and delivered from the snares of our enemies.

THANK YOU!

A total of $ 3, 526.00 was raised in the recent collection for the noviciate of the Sister Adorers of the Royal Heart, the feminine branch of the Institute. Be assured of the prayers of the sisters for you and your intentions. Thank you for your generosity!

COMMENTARY ON TODAY'S EPISTLE

by Dom Prosper Guéranger

Let us also understand the importance and the necessity of mutual union for all Christians. There must be among them that love of the brotherhood which is so frequently and so strongly recommended by the apostles, the cooperators of the Spirit in the building up of the Church. The keeping aloof from schism and heresy, of whose terrible consequences we were told in last Sunday's Gospel; the repression of hatred and jealousy; no, these are not enough to make us become useful members of the Church of Christ. We must, moreover, have a charity which is effective, devoted, persevering, and brings all souls and hearts into true union and harmony; a charity, which, to be worthy of the name, must be warm-hearted and generous, for it must make us see God in our fellow men, and that will bring us to look upon their happiness and misfortunes as though they were our own. We must have none of that phlegmatic egotism which finds satisfaction in never putting itself out of the way for anybody. Hateful as such a temperament is, it is far from being a rare one. It holds this peculiar view about charity, that the best way of observing it is to have a complete indifference for those who live with us! Souls of this stamp are not bedding in the divine cement . . . the heavenly builder is compelled to reject them as unfit.
