Mass Intentions Book Open Again for 2023

Dear Faithful,

Late last year, we opened up the Mass intentions book for the year 2023, limiting the number of intentions each family could request to two intentions, in order to ensure that all had the opportunity to have Masses offered for their intentions.

Now, all have had ample opportunity to request intentions, and the Mass intentions book has been filled for roughly half the year, with some openings still remaining as early as April. We are therefore reopening the Mass intentions book for the rest of the year 2023, this time without limits as to the number of Masses which may be requested.

When requesting Masses, please bear in mind the following points:

- Specific dates may be requested; however, it is not always possible to accommodate such requests. It is not possible to reserve multiple Sundays.
- The recommended offering per Mass intention is $10. It is presumed that someone who requests a Mass is willing and able to make the offering, so no Mass requests are confirmed until the offering has been received. In case of difficulty, please contact the parish office.
- Cash or check are accepted. There is no online form for submitting Mass intentions. Written requests with the accompanying donation — submitted by mail or dropped into the collection basket on Sunday — are the preferred method. Email requests are tolerated, but the donation must be submitted before requests are confirmed. We do not take intentions via telephone.

Sincerely in Christ our King,
Canon David Silvey
