FROM OUR VICAR, REV. CANON SEQUEIRA

Very dear faithful and friends,

Our Holy Patron Saint Francis de Sales has this to say about receiving Communion in a worthy manner: “Begin your preparation overnight, by various aspirations and loving brief prayers... In the morning rise with joyful expectation of the blessing you hope for, and (having made your confession) go with the fullest trust, but at the same time with the fullest humility, to receive that heavenly food that will sustain your immortal life. And after having said the sacred words, ‘Lord, I am not worthy’, do not make any further movement whatever, either in prayer or otherwise, but gently opening your mouth, in the fullness of faith, hope, and love, receive Him in Whom, by Whom, and through Whom you believe, hope, and love.”

- Introduction to the Devout Life, Part II, Chapter 21.
