FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

Deo Gratias! What a blessing for the Shrine to have had thirty-one First Communion this month as well as one adult Baptism, two Confirmations, and four infant Baptisms. Let us unite our prayers and offer them to our Mother Mary in a bouquet of thanksgiving!

Liturgical note: Please note that the faithful are invited to kneel when a Bishop or a Cardinal processes down the aisle while giving his blessing. Faithful are not to kneel before a 'simple' priest. It is customary to bow to the cross as it processes down the aisle in an act of reverence for the Holy Cross.

Regarding Holy Communion; it is a pious and praiseworthy custom to let the host slowly melt on the tongue before swallowing it and not to chew it out of special reverence and attention to this August Sacrament. Thank you for following these liturgical notes and for helping your children to follow them as well.
