FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

Dear faithful,

If you read again carefully today's Gospel, the details given by the author reveals some very interesting realities that can, as always, be applied to our own spiritual life. The evangelist saint Marc makes it clear that the crowd is gathered in the desert, not in the city, a place of debauchery, and lust. No, the crowd does not gather in the city, but all had to walk a long way in order to receive the miraculous bread from the hand of Jesus and his disciples.

We are no more citizens of the city where all the noise is, we have accepted to follow Christ in the desert where, the mortification of our senses, external senses and internal senses such as our imagination and our memory, is essential to encounter Christ. Yes, indeed it has a cost to follow Christ in this desert, and again not all of the people who heard His voice did follow Him. This mortification of the senses is made possible if we try to quiet all this noise coming from the world. God can only speak in the silence of the heart, and His Word speaks to us in an Eternal Silence.

REMINDER FOR JULY & AUGUST!

Weekday summer
Mass Schedule in effect.

A RETREAT CENTER FOR THE UNITED STATES

With profound gratitude to Almighty God, the Institute of Christ the King is pleased to announce the acquisition of a large property in southeastern Wisconsin which will serve the spiritual needs of all our members and especially of you, the faithful.

Seated on over 100 acres in the charming town of Burlington, this former Franciscan friary boasts 70 rooms and a large chapel capable of holding 300 people, as well as a refectory, several conference rooms, and an auditorium. Its idyllic fields and woods border the Fox River, with several other bodies of water nearby, including Lake Geneva. The town of Burlington is conveniently located one hour north of Chicago O'Hare airport and 30 minutes south of Milwaukee, and is thus within a day's drive of all our apostolates in the central United States.

The Institute will prepare this property to be used year-round for a number of activities central to our mission, especially youth camps and spiritual retreats. It is our hope that, with a generous response from our faithful, Sacred Heart Retreat Center will open its doors after several months of renovations. This great development in the history of the American Province is the fruit of over three years of fervent prayer and diligent research.

We ask for your prayers as we embark on this bold endeavor in the service of Christ our King and High Priest, and we look forward to sharing with you in the coming weeks the ways that you can help.
