FROM OUR VICE-RECTOR, REV. CANON SEQUEIRA

Dear faithful,

Do you know how to recognize the moments in which Our Lord visits your soul? A word read or heard, perhaps even by chance, an edifying example, an interior inspiration, a new light which makes you see your faults more clearly and opens new horizons of virtue and of good - all are visits from Jesus. And you, how do you correspond? Is your soul sensitive to these lights, to these admonitions? Do you not sometimes turn your gaze away, fearing that the light you have glimpsed may ask you for sacrifices which are too painful for your self-love? Oh! if you had always recognized the moment in which the Lord visited you! If you had always been open to His action! Try then to begin again today, resolve to commence anew each time that you happen to give in to nature. "The things that are to your peace," your good, your sanctification, are precisely here, in this continual adherence to the impulses of grace.

SUNDAY MASS ATTIRE

Who, or what are you dressing for?

Our Catholic tradition is that we dress up nice for Sunday Mass. This may be somewhat uncomfortable for some people, but we do it to honor Our Eucharistic Lord. If you had a meeting or gathering with the President of the USA, would you dress for comfort, or to appeal to the opposite sex? Would you appear as if you were going to the beach or to the park? The President of the USA is as nothing compared to the King of Kings, Jesus Christ, truly present in every Catholic Church. If we make our Sunday Mass attendance an occasion to celebrate our meeting with Jesus, and we do it with great dignity, including how we dress, then God will bless our efforts to honor Him and we will be a good example to those around us.
