INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

The Sadness of the Disciples.

Jesus begins with a rhetorical question that makes evident the sadness of the disciples, evident in their hearts because of the approaching detachment from Jesus: "Now I am going to the One who sent me; not one of you asks, where are you going?"

It is clear that for the disciples the detachment from the life-style lived with Jesus implies suffering. And Jesus urges them saying: "Yet you are sad at heart because I have told you this." Thus Saint Augustine explains such a sentiment of abandonment of the disciples: "they were afraid to think of losing the visible presence of Christ... they were grieved, saddened in their human affection, at the thought that their eyes would no longer be consoled in seeing him."

Jesus tries to dispel this sadness, due to the fact that they will not have His presence, revealing to them His departure. We can say that if He does not leave them, the Paraclete will not be able to join them; if He dies and therefore, returns to the Father, He will be able to send the Paraclete to the disciples.

His departure and the detachment from the disciples is the condition for the coming of the Paraclete: "because unless I go, the Paraclete will not come to you..."

Month of the Our Lady

In addition to the myriad feast days honoring Our Lady under her many titles and virtues, the entire month of May is especially given to her praise. In the words of Pope Paul VI, May is "a month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God ... For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne."

Go to Joseph!

Wednesday, May 1 - 8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Mass

If we know anything of St. Joseph, it is that he acted when he needed to act, doing what was right and necessary for his family and for God, which were intertwined.

Because families are the basis of society, and because families need shelter, those who construct and provide are not merely means to the end of rain-free sleeping, but they make up something of the essence of family. Because of the reality of this world, from its created nature to its fallen state, God has ordained that shelter and provision be made for the helplessness of a mother shortly after birth, not to mention the infant.

St. Joseph, therefore, is the essential worker who found and constructed shelter for his family. As the patron of the universal Church, it seems his work of sheltering and building continues in a new form.

Considering that which is most essential, the power of this patron, alongside his example, might come into even clearer view.

St. Joseph the Worker, the essential worker, pray for us.

Have a blessed Feast day!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

The St. Monica Circle

The St. Monica Circle was founded by and has been part of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers for over one hundred years, and has been formed at St. Patrick's Oratory by the Confraternity of Christian Mothers. It is open to all men, women, girls, and boys in our Oratory. Members pledge to offer at least one weekday Mass of their choice (need not be the same day each week) and their Holy Communion for "vocations in the Oratory," reciting the two official prayers after the Mass for this intention. These prayers are said privately by the individual, not as a group. A missed Mass need not be made up. We need spiritual vocations at least as much as we need good Christian families: the Church must grow spiritually and physically. All are invited and urged to participate in this very efficacious spiritual work by becoming a member of the St. Monica Circle. St. Monica's feast day is May 4. If inspired to follow this call, there will be a sign-up sheet & prayers near the SCRIP table at the church on April 28 and May 5. Any questions, call Rose at (920) 327-9005; or email ccm.officers@gmail.com

A New Church Directory is Coming!

St. Patrick's Oratory Photo Directory Help Needed

St. Patrick's Oratory has seen so many new faces over the last few years. We would like to update our church Photo Directory by having all registered members included in the 2024 Directory. Because of increased costs from our previous provider, we have decided to create our own Directory. This will allow us to offer more affordable photo packages and flexibility in scheduling sessions. This year we will be using Oratory member Beth Relyea Photography and will be printing our Directory. Our photo sessions will run from July 7-14, which includes two Sundays. More details and the sign-up link will come in early June.

We will need help in several areas to produce this Photo Directory (reviewing photos with families, designing the Directory, getting business sponsors, checking in people, organizing photos, printing details, etc.). Getting involved in this project is a great way to help out and meet new people in our Oratory! Please let Sue Vanevenhoven know if you are able to help at 920-764-0550 or email vanevenhovens@sbcglobal.net
