INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

My Lord and My God

The Divine Mercy of the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been pouring out ever since Christ's side was opened on Calvary.

Christ's Sacred Heart, which raised up St. Thomas from despair to faith, is ready to raise up each of us from any despair we may have to Christian hope.

Christ invites each of us, "...bring your hand and put it into my side..." Christ invites each of us to touch his Sacred Heart, to allow our hearts to become hearts of love. As we look at Christ's Sacred Heart we see that Christ's love forgives us, heals us and restores us.

The physical wound in Christ's side is only the gateway to the love of Jesus' Sacred Heart. In Christ's Sacred Heart we see the love of Jesus for us and we respond, "My Lord and my God."

Canon Antoine Boucheron

JUNE - MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

St. Anthony of Padua Thursday, June 13 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

St. Anthony of Padua (1195-1231) was born in Lisbon, Portugal to a powerful yet pious family. At age 15 he relinquished a life of nobility, wealth, and honor, and chose instead to serve God with the Augustinians. Years later he witnessed the dead bodies of Franciscan friars who had been martyred by Muslims being carried through the town where he was stationed. Filled with renewed zeal to follow Christ even more completely after the example of these martyrs, St. Anthony joined the Franciscan order and traveled to Morocco to preach to the Moors. However, his poor health prevented his mission and he was forced to return to Italy. There he lived a largely quiet and secluded life, spending his time in prayer, study, and priestly duties. No one had any idea of St. Anthony's giftedness as a preacher and teacher of theology until one day he was called upon to be a substitute preacher. He amazed everyone in attendance with his depth of knowledge and oratory skill. He then became the foremost preacher of the Franciscans and was sent to preach against the heretics and the vices of the day. His zeal and effectiveness as a preacher earned him the title "Hammer of the Heretics." St. Anthony was known for his holiness and miracles, and was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1946. He is the patron saint of the elderly, fishermen, and the poor, and is renowned as the finder of lost articles. His feast day is June 13.
