INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Do you hunger?

A big crowd followed Jesus--five thousand men plus women and children. We notice how they followed Christ on foot, during the heat of the day, into the wilderness and without food. This is a very relevant lesson for us today particularly if we are tempted to miss Sunday Mass because the church is too far from our bed.

Jesus performed the miracle described in today's Gospel not because of a vain desire to be ostentatious but because of compassion for the people.

Why does the Gospel specify barley loaves? Loaves made from barley are a lowly bread, tough and rustic. This detail points out that Jesus can work with anything we give Him, no matter how unworthy it is. The point is not our personal value or the number of our talents; the point is to give freely our gifts for His glory. Remember the story of the widow and her two mites (which are small coins). Her donation didn't amount to much, but it was worthy because the offering came from her heart.

The miracle of the loaves and fishes foreshadows Holy Thursday when Jesus would institute the Mass and the Blessed Sacrament with His Real Presence under the appearances of bread and wine. The starving crowd following Jesus into the wilderness was fed and satisfied. We live spiritually through the reception of His Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Communion is approaching. Do you hunger for the Lord?

Canon Antoine Boucheron

True love, real peace!

Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Monday, Holy Mother Church celebrates the great feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In the sixteen hundreds, our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Mary revealing His Sacred Heart and requesting the establishment of this feast, the Friday after Corpus Christi, in order to make reparation for sins, which offend His Sacred Heart.

We Roman Catholics are of the religion of love. The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the ultimate symbol and representation and summary of all His life of love for us.

We are of the religion of the Cross. Everywhere we see the Cross of Jesus. By the mystery of the Cross, we learn to carry our cross behind Jesus, every day.

We are the religion of "Yes." By His Passion, Jesus said "Yes" to His Father, accepting to suffer for us and repairing the "No," said by Adam and by all men who commit sin. By His obedience, Jesus teaches us to submit ourselves to the Will of God. "I do always the things that please Him." And Our Lady, the Blessed Virgin, says to us what she said to the servants in Cana of Galilee: "Whatsoever He shall say to you, do ye."

We are of the religion of humility: We have seen Jesus washing the feet of His Apostles and showing them a child as the model of humility. We are not of the religion of great names, of politicians, of marketing. We are of the religion of anonymity, of humility.

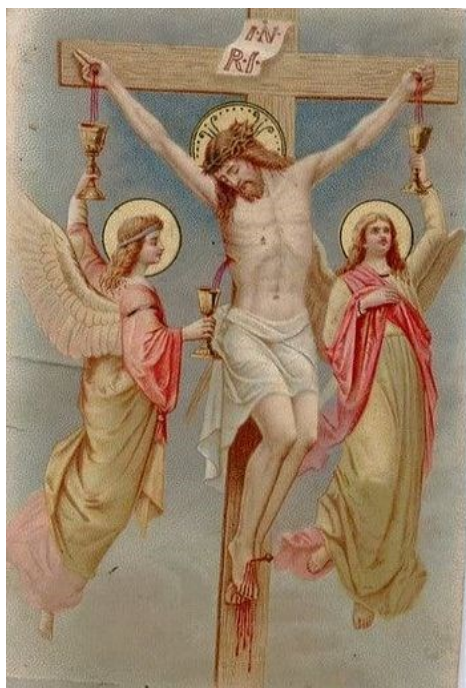

We are the religion of meekness and forgiveness as we pray in the Our Father. In His Cross, Jesus teaches us to forgive and justify even our enemies: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

We are the religion of the empty tomb. Christ won, He is alive. Adopters of other religions can visit the embalmed bodies of their founders. But we visit the empty tomb of Christ, because He is alive, forever.

But, all of this we can summarize by saying that we are of the religion of love, the religion of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Because all of these characteristics we find in the Sacred Heart of Jesus. There, we can see His sufferings, His Cross, His humility, His forgiveness, His victory in the Resurrection, His infinite love for us.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the summary, the condensation of the Gospel. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Happy 4th of July

A Prayer for Our Country

An Act of Consecration to Mary Immaculate
Patroness of the United States of America
(Proclaimed under this title in 1846)

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother; in union with Mary, we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme eternal dominion and authority. Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need. Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.
