MASS INTENTIONS

The Provincial House of the Institute of Christ the King is currently accepting limited numbers of Mass intentions (no more than 5 per family). As the number of priests available to take these Masses is limited and have duties in other apostolates, we are, unfortunately, unable to accommodate requests for Novenas of Masses or Gregorian Masses.

We also are unable to schedule Masses for specific dates, but can assure you they will be offered within a year of receiving them.

Mass intentions and the corresponding stipends ($10 minimum) may be placed in the Sunday collection.

Introit

Look to Thy covenant, O Lord, forsake not forever the lives of Thy afflicted ones. Arise, O Lord; defend Thy cause; be not unmindful of the voices of those who ask Thee.

Why, O God, have Thou cast us off forever? Why does Thy anger smolder against the sheep of Thy pasture?

Glory be to the Father . . .

Look to Thy covenant, O Lord. . .

Collect

Almighty, eternal God, grant us an increase of faith, hope and charity; and make us love what Thou command so that we may be made worthy to attain what Thy promise. Through our Lord . . .

Epistle

Galatians 3: 16-22

Brethren: The promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. He does not say, And to his offsprings, as of many; but as of one, And to your offspring, Who is Christ. Now I mean this: The Law which was made four hundred and thirty years later does not annul the covenant which was ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. For if the right to inherit be from the Law, it is no longer from a promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise. What then was the Law? It was enacted on account of transgressions, being delivered by angels through a mediator, until the offspring should come to whom the promise was made. Now there is no intermediary where there is only one; but God is one. Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? By no means. For if a law had been given that could give life, justice would truly be from the Law. But the Scriptures shut up all things under sin, that by the faith of Jesus Christ the promise might be given to those who believe.

Gradual & Alleluia

Look to Thy covenant, O Lord, be not unmindful of the lives of Thy afflicted ones. Arise, O Lord; defend Thy cause; remember the reproach of Thy servants.

Alleluia, alleluia. O Lord, Thou hast been our refuge through all generations. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

At that time, Jesus was going to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee. And as He was entering a certain village, there He met ten lepers, who stood afar off and lifted up their voice, crying, Jesus, Master, have pity on us. And when He saw them He said, Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass as they were on their way, that they were made clean. But one of them, seeing that he was made clean, returned, with a loud voice glorifying God, and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks; and he was a Samaritan. But Jesus answered and said, Were not the ten made clean? But where are the nine? Has no one been found to return and give glory to God, except this foreigner? And He said to him, Arise, go your way, for your faith has saved you.

Offertory

My trust is in Thee, O Lord; I say, Thou are my God. In Thy hands is my destiny.

Secret

Look with favor upon Thy people, O Lord, look with favor upon their gifts; so that, appeased by this offering, Thy will grant us pardon and give us what we ask. Through our Lord . . .

Communion

Thou hast given us, O Lord, bread from heaven, endowed with all delights and the sweetness of every taste.

Postcommunion

Having received Thy heavenly sacrament, O Lord, may we make progress, we beseech Thee, toward our everlasting salvation. Through our Lord . . .

WISDOM FROM ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

“It is not those who commit the least faults who are the most holy, but those who have the greatest courage, the greatest generosity, the greatest love, who make the boldest efforts to overcome themselves, and are not immediately apprehensive about tripping.”
