

WISDOM FROM ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

“If we want to have interior peace, it is necessary to have one will and one desire: to love Jesus crucified, employing all our faculties and energies for this purpose. Different indeed is the peace resulting from this love - a peace that the world does not give. The worldly boast of their peace, but certainly it is a false peace that eventually will be destroyed.

It is not always in your power to do important things; sufficient are the small things that offer themselves every hour of the day ... But do them with devotion and love.

Nothing is so strong as gentleness, and nothing is so gentle as true strength.

In correcting the faults we find in our heart, we do better by having compassion than by eliciting disgust.

Do not despair over your shortcomings. Start over each day. You make spiritual progress by continually beginning again and again.

As long as this life lasts, we can never think of living without imperfections. Whether we are teaching or learning commanding or obeying, we are all weak creatures.”

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Introit

Incline Thine ear, O Lord; answer me; save Thy servant, O my God, who trusts in Thee. Have pity on me, O Lord, for to Thee I call all the day.

Gladden the soul of Thy servant, for to Thee, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Glory be to the Father . . .

Incline Thine ear, O Lord; answer me; save Thy servant . . .

Collect

May Thy abiding mercy, O Lord, cleanse and strengthen Thy Church, and, since without Thee she cannot exist in safety, let her be ever guided by Thy grace. Through our Lord . . .

Epistle

Galatians 5:25-26; 6:1-10

Brethren: If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. Let us not become desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, even if a person is caught doing something wrong, you who are spiritual instruct such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let everyone test his own work, and so he will have glory in himself only, and not in comparison with another. For each one will bear his own burden. And let him who is instructed in the word share all good things with his teacher. Be not deceived, God is not mocked. For what a man sows in the flesh, from the flesh also will reap corruption. But he who sows in the spirit, from the spirit will reap life everlasting. And in doing good let us not grow tired; for in due time we shall reap if we do not relax. Therefore, while we have time, let us do good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Gradual & Alleluia

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing to Thy name, Most High. To proclaim Thy kindness at dawn and Thou faithfulness throughout the night. Alleluia, alleluia.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King over all the earth. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 7:11-16

At that time, Jesus went to a town called Naim; and His disciples and a large crowd went with Him. And as He drew near the gate of the town, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large gathering from the town was with her. And the Lord, seeing her, had compassion on her, and said to her, Do not weep. And He went up and touched the stretcher; and the bearers stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, arise. And he who was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. But fear seized upon all, and they began to glorify God, saying, A great prophet has risen among us, and God has visited His people.

Offertory Verse

I have waited, waited for the Lord, and He stooped toward me, and heard my cry. And He put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God.

Secret

May Thy sacrament, O Lord, always keep us and guard us from the assaults of the devil. Through our Lord . . .

Communion Verse

The bread that I will give is My Flesh for the life of the world.

Postcommunion

May the working of the heavenly gift, O Lord, so possess us, mind and body, that the action of the sacrament, rather than our senses, may continually prevail in us. Through our Lord . . .
