WISDOM FROM ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

"If you do not have humility, you do not have charity, and if you are without charity, you are also without humility. It is almost impossible to have charity without being humble and to be humble without having charity."

Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Introit

I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord; in whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me, I will hear them; and I will be their Lord forever. Hearken, My people, to My teaching; incline your ears to the words of My mouth.

Glory be to the Father . . .

I am the salvation of the people . . .

Collect

Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep away from us all misfortune, that, unhampered in soul and body, we may perform with peaceful minds the works that are Thine. Through our Lord . . .

Epistle

Ephesians 4:23-28

Brethren: Be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, which has been created according to God in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore, put away lying and speak truth each one with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down upon your anger; do not give place to the devil. He who was wont to steal, let him steal no longer; but rather let him labor, working with his hands at what is good, that he may have something to share with him who suffers need.

Gradual & Alleluia

Let my prayer come like incense before Thee, O Lord. The lifting up of my hands, like the evening sacrifice. Alleluia, alleluia. Give thanks to the Lord, invoke His name; make known among the nations His deeds. Alleluia.

Gospel

Matthew 22:1-14

At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a king who made a marriage feast for his son. And he sent his servants to call in those invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. Again he sent out other servants, saying, "Tell those who are invited, behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast." But they made light of it, and went off, one to his farm, and another to his business; and the rest laid hold of his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. But when the king heard of it, he was angry; and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he said to his servants, "The marriage feast indeed is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy; go therefore to the crossroads, and invite to the marriage feast whomever you shall find." And his servants went out into the roads, and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; and the marriage feast was filled with guests. Now the king went in to see the guests, and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he said to him, "Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?" But he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind his hands and feet and cast him forth into the darkness outside, where there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.

Offertory

Though I walk amid distress, Thou preserve me, O Lord; against the anger of my enemies Thy raise Thou hand; Thy right hand saves me.

Secret

Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that these gifts which we offer in the sight of Thy majesty, may be the means of our salvation. Through our Lord . . .

Communion

Thou hast commanded that Thy precepts be diligently kept. Oh, that I might be firm in the ways of keeping Thy statutes!
