Septuagesima Sunday

Introit

The sorrows of death surrounded me, the sorrows of hell encompassed me: In my afflictions I called upon the Lord; and from His holy temple He heard my voice. I love Thee, O Lord, my strength, my rock and my deliverer. Glory be to the Father . . . The sorrows of death surrounded me . . .

Collect

O Lord, we beseech Thee, graciously hear the prayers of Thy people, that we who are justly punished for our sins may be mercifully delivered for the glory of Thy Name. Through Our Lord . . .

Epistle

1 Corinthians 9:24-27; 10:1-5

Thus Brethren: Do you not know that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one receives the prize? So run as to obtain it. And everyone in a contest abstains from all things, and they indeed to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable. I, therefore, so run as not without a purpose; I so fight as not beating the air; but I chastise my body and bring it into subjection, lest perhaps after preaching to others I myself should be rejected. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, all were baptized in Moses, in the cloud and in the sea. And all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink for they drank from the spiritual rock which followed them, and the rock was Christ. Yet with most of them God was not well pleased.

Gradual & Alleluia

A helper in due time in tribulation: Let them trust in Thee who know Thy Name: for Thou hast not forsaken them that seek Thee, O Lord. For the poor man shall not be forgotten to the end: the patience of the poor shall not perish for ever. Arise, O Lord, let not man be strengthened.

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Let Thy ears be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant. If Thou, O Lord, mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand it? For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness, and by reason of Thy law I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

Gospel

Matthew 20:1-16

At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And about the third hour, he went out and saw others standing in the market place idle; and he said to them, 'Go you also into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is just.' So they went. And again he went out about the sixth, and about the ninth hour, and did as before. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing about and he said to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?' They said to him, 'Because no man has hired us.' He said to them, 'Go you also into the vineyard.' But when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers, and pay them their wages, beginning from the last even to the first.' Now when they of the eleventh hour came, they received each a denarius. And when the first came, they thought that they would receive more; but they also received each his denarius. And on receiving it, they began to murmur against the householder, saying, 'These last have worked a single hour, and you have put them on a level with us, who have borne the burden of the day's heat.' But answering one of them, he said, 'Friend, I do you no injustice; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what is yours and go; I choose to give to this last even as to you. Have I not a right to do what I choose? Or are you envious because I am good?' Even so the last shall be first, and the first last; for many are called, but few are chosen.

Offertory

It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing praise to Thy Name, O Most High.

Secret

Receive our offerings and prayers, we beseech Thee O Lord, and by these heavenly mysteries, both cleanse us and graciously hear us.

Through our Lord . . .

Communion

Let Thy face shine upon Thy servant; save me in Thy mercy. O Lord, let me not be put to shame, for I have called upon Thee.

Postcommunion

May Thy faithful people, O God, be strengthened by Thy gifts; that by receiving them, they may seek after them all the more, and in seeking them, may receive them forever. Through our Lord . . .

WISDOM FROM ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

"We leave charity for a moment, and this imperfect habit of human love is thrust upon us, and we content ourselves with it as if it were true charity, till some clear light shows us that we have been deceived."
