NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(Mass Propers available in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

We see Our Lord moved to a rare level of emotion this Sunday when He weeps over Jerusalem. The sinful and unrepentant city will finally be punished by the smiting hand of God for its refusal to believe in the Savior, and yet it did not have to come to this. Jerusalem, says Our Lord, had not known the time of thy visitation (Luke 19:41-47).

What favor had the Jews and this privileged city, this capital city of God's chosen nation, not been showered? They had been blessed with the reign of great kings, such as David, Solomon and Josiah. They had been granted victory in war, deliverance from the yoke of their enemies and material prosperity to name only a few benefits. And yet, they had put to death the prophets God had sent them when they had embraced sin, particularly the sin of idolatry.

Are we so different from Jerusalem? Take heed, lest we share in their unfortunate fate someday. What persons or created goods are we turning to in preference to God? May we turn back to Him as our Sovereign Good and serve Him with renewed ardor.

The month of August is now upon us. As you may know, August is traditionally consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The world around us seems to ramp up its attacks on the obvious truth about human nature and traditional morality with a frightening speed, growing more rapid all the time. Even our Holy Mother the Church is not immune to these nefarious influences, and many false shepherds (who inwardly are ravaging wolves) seem to gain the high ground. What a comfort then to know of Our Lady's promise at Fatima: "In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph!" Keep fighting bravely therefore, for our victory is already assured!

A big "Thank you!" for all the kind cards, gifts and well wishes on the occasion of my recent birthday and 4th anniversary of priestly ordination. Your generosity, kind encouragement, gratitude and prayers are truly appreciated.

On a somewhat sad note: let us pray for the repose of the soul of Rosita Foley, who passed away on the morning of Thursday, August 4. Many of you knew Rosita, as she was a longtime member of our Oakland Apostolate family. She is survived by her husband, John, and her children. Rosita died fortified with the Sacraments of Holy Mother Church. Please contact me directly for information about the funeral arrangements.

We welcome back Father Glenn Naguit, the incoming Pastor of St. Margaret Mary Church, who will arrive on Monday, August 15. Many of you surely have fond memories of Father's time here as Parochial Administrator in years past. At the same time, we send out our best wishes and prayers for Father Kenneth Nobrega as he moves on to his next priestly assignment in the Diocese of Oakland.

There will be a Men's Group dinner this Wednesday, August 10 from 7:30 to 9:30 in Kozina Hall. A brief meditation on the life of St. Joseph is usually followed by a lively discussion and a social dinner. We hope to see you there! Please RSVP to Johnny Lazear: Lazearj41@gmail.com

There will not be a Sursum Corda young adult event this month. Sursum Corda will return in September under the usual format of the Rosary, a talk followed by dinner, and the chanted Office of Compline to conclude the evening. Please Contact Noe Perez for more information: n_perez3@u.pacific.edu

Altar Server Corps to attention! There will be a training session for servers on Sunday, August 14 from 8 am to 9 am in Kozina Hall. This training is necessary for new recruits to get off to a good start at serving and to maintain our veteran servers' skill level. Please RSVP to Joseph Burk: josephburk94@gmail.com

I will be out of town from Saturday, August 13 - Saturday, September 3: I will be seeing some family and friends in Virginia and then heading off to the Institute's seminary, Gricigliano, outside Florence, Italy. I will be back for both Sunday Masses at St. Margaret Mary's on September 4. Thankfully, a few canons of the Institute will be able to replace me during part of this vacation. Please check the Liturgical Calendar in the Bulletin each week for more information.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Norman
