5TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(Mass Propers available in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

Liturgically, this Fifth Sunday after Pentecost is quite eventful. We begin the month of July, the Month of the Precious Blood of Our Lord, and we also commemorate the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary to Saint Elizabeth (July 2). Our Lady being the true mother of Our Lord, it is she who gave Him His human nature, and thus His Blood. Our dear Lord now gives us His Blood to drink every time we receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. He is wholly, entirely and really present, in the chalice and the consecrated hosts, in the adorable Sacrament of the Altar. The Catholic Encyclopedia (1907) teaches us this regarding Our Savior's Blood:

“Jesus, at the Last Supper, ascribes to it the same life-giving power that belongs to His flesh (see EUCHARIST). The Apostles, St. Peter (1 Peter 1:2, 19), St. John (1 John 1:7; Apocalypse 1:5 etc.), and above all St. Paul (Romans 3:25; Ephesians 1:7; Hebrews 9:10) regard it as synonymous with Jesus's Passion and Death, the source of redemption. The Precious Blood is therefore a part of the Sacred Humanity and hypostatically united to the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity...”

We are pleased to announce a momentous upcoming event: the First Solemn Mass of Canon Jacob Wells, originally from our humble Oakland Apostolate. The Mass will be at 12:30 pm on Sunday, July 16. Also joining us will be the U.S. Provincial Superior of the Institute, Canon Matthew Talarico, and our very own Abbé Cody Teague, who recently received the clerical cassock and tonsure! Deo gratias!

The faithful who attend the First Mass of a newly ordained priest have traditionally been granted a plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions, throughout Church history. The First Blessing of a newly ordained priest, which Canon Wells will give immediately following the Mass, also carries with it special graces. It would be wonderful if this homecoming of one of our priestly “native sons” were well attended, in a show of gratitude to God for answering our prayers for future priests.

Our Sunday reception will follow Canon Wells' First Mass, made all the more special by his presence, and that of Canon Talarico and Abbé Teague. Would you like to chip in and help with the preparations? Please contact I-Wen Connick: iconnick@pacbell.net.

The next training session for the altar servers will be this coming Saturday, July 8 at 11:30 am. Coming to these monthly training sessions is the way to receive comprehensive instruction in the various liturgical functions. After the example of many great saints, let us spare no effort to offer the Lord the most glorious liturgy possible.

Our next Men's Group Dinner will be Wednesday, July 12 at 7:15 pm in Fr. Kozina Hall. We hope to see you there for this evening of Catholic fraternity and formation in the Faith! To rsvp, please contact Felipe Vazquez: vazquez8591@gmail.com.

Guess what? Our Sacred Music Schola is recruiting! I suspect there are hidden talents out there still among us, and you know that Our Lord told us not to hide these under a bushel. No, we are to let them shine forth, that by their others would come to know and glorify Our Heavenly Father. Please consider offering your talent to our apostolate in this way. For further information, please contact Dennison Gallardo: vivatxtusrex@gmail.com.

Even without experience in music, many find that once they give it a try, they do indeed have great musical potential. Moreover, one of our schola members is giving very generously of her time and effort to train beginners with an introductory class. To find out more, please contact Crissa Volhontseff: crissaviolinkid@comcast.net.

You know that we have monthly meetings for Sursum Corda, our Catholic young adult group. These meetings typically consist of the Rosary followed by a talk and social dinner. When possible, the evening concludes with the chanted Office of Compline. We are currently looking for a new leadership team for this group. If you would like to help with the monthly organization of this event, please contact Noe Perez: n\_perez3@u.pacific.edu.

The registration deadline for St. Michael's Patrol is Wednesday, July 19. This Traditional Catholic summer camp offered by the Oakland and San Jose Apostolates will take place from Thursday, July 27 – Saturday, July 29 in the lovely, wooded hills above the town of Saratoga, on the site of the SCCPOA Campground (24090 Deer Path Rd). The registration form is available in church, in Flocknote, and here: <https://institute-christ-king.org/oakland-events>. Please be sure to fill out and sign the audiovisual media consent form as well.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Norman
