10TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(We offer the Mass Propers in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

Yet another St. Michael's Patrol has come and gone, and by God's grace it was a marvelous success. A hearty thank-you to all who helped in the preparation and running of our camp, and a particular note of gratitude to Canon Jonathan Fehrenbacher, Rector of St. Gianna Oratory in Tucson, Arizona, for coming all the way to California to help at our camp. We couldn't have done it without you, Canon!

The generous dedication to this camp on the part of the activities organizers, kitchen crew and seminarians, in particular Abbé Cody Teague, also merits a special word of thanks. Thanks also to Abbé Alex Hoopes for your interesting talk on the life and death of St. Januarius.

This year's camp took place at a new location, the lovely Rancho Los Mochos campsite in Livermore. This locale is at an elevation of several thousand feet outside of central Livermore, and boasts a pleasing mixture of tree cover, hills and flat field spaces, offering better circumstances for competitive sports and games. The presence of a full kitchen, dining hall and chapel building also offered an improved camp experience for all.

Our summer camp had for its theme this year the Martyrs of the Early Church. Their holy deaths proved their unmatched love for God and neighbor, often being preceded by many and varied tortures at the hands of their executioners. Their fidelity, however, won them the crown of everlasting glory, and in many cases led to the conversions of those who had been their persecutors. May we never forget their example. May we ever be inspired by their perseverance and fortitude in the midst of terrible suffering.

The heavenly patrons of this year's camp were St. Ignatius of Antioch, St. Justin Martyr, St. Tarcisius, St. Sebastian and St. Stephen. Each team of campers made flags bearing witness to their saint's patronage. The campers were tested in virtue in many sports and games, developed their confidence before others by participation in campfire skits, fed their love for the saints and their virtues by listening to conferences about their lives, and sanctified their souls and minds by prayer, particularly the Holy Mass and the Rosary.

Thank you so much for my 40th birthday celebration at last Sunday's reception! It is truly a gift to be able to serve among such kind and generous faithful. A special thanks to the reception team for all the organizing that went into this, particularly for the spiritual bouquet. Your prayers are the surest support.

I will have to reschedule the Lesson in Liturgy that had been scheduled for this Sunday, July 28 (yesterday), but I was not able to correct the previous bulletin in time. Please stay tuned for updates regarding the monthly events in August.

I will be on vacation with my family, in Virginia, from August 12-25. From Virginia, I will leave for the Institute's seminary in Italy, Gricigliano, for our annual General Chapter, and be back at St. Margaret Mary's for both Masses on Sunday, September 1. Information about my priestly replacements will be in upcoming bulletins. Another canon is coming!

Wishing you a blessed week,

Canon Norman
