Third Sunday of Lent

At that time Jesus was casting out a devil, and the same was dumb. And when He had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke, and the multitudes were in admiration at it. But some of them said: He casteth out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils. And others, tempting, asked of Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation, and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because you say that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils: doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his court, those things are in peace which he possesseth. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcome him, he will take away all his armour wherein he trusted, and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with Me is against Me: and he that gathereth not with Me scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he saith: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.

The Tradition for Tomorrow Development Fund

Next Sunday, March 19, after each Mass, the Building Committee will present the much-anticipated, mini documentary that tells the story of our "Wandering Oratory." We will also provide an update of our fundraising progress and the plan as we move forward to the next phase of our efforts to acquire a permanent home. We hope to broaden our visibility to the larger ICKSP family by presenting a video that will be added to our website that showcases our journey and speaks of our goal of finding a permanent home. This goal may seem daunting, but God sees our efforts and will make them fruitful in His good time. Thank you for your prayer, your time, and your financial consideration.
