Pentecost Sunday

At that time Jesus said to His disciples: If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and will make Our abode in him: He that loveth Me not, keepeth not My words. And the word which you have heard is not Mine; but the Father's who sent Me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you.

But the Paraclete, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My Name, He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatsoever I shall have said to you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. You have heard that I said to you: I go away and I come unto you. If you loved Me, you would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass: that when it shall come to pass you may believe. I will not now speak many things with you. For the prince of this world cometh, and in Me he hath not any thing. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father hath given Me commandment so do I.

A Note From Abbé Torreano!

Dear friends at the IHM Oratory,

Salutations de France! At the moment I'm just another face lost in a crowd of more than 20,000 pilgrims. This daunting adventure of 100 kilometers is affectionately known since time immemorial as the Chartres Pilgrimage. "Immemorial" because I've got no clue when it started, but certainly it was quite a long time ago. This year the pilgrimage starts at Saint Sulpice in Paris and ends at the Cathedral of Chartres and no doubt this is where the name of the pilgrimage comes from. About 25 seminarians from the Institute and quite a few priests are taking part, as well as many other friends from communities all over France and the world.

Have a blessed Pentecost.

Yours, in Christ,

Abbé Paul Torreano
