Bishop requests acts of reparation to the Catholics in the Diocese of Lake Charles

"Recent outrageous and blasphemous depictions of the Last Supper at the opening ceremonies of the Olympics remind me of the constant need for reparation. Sadly, such shameful behavior, in which what is sacred is demeaned and profaned and sometimes disguised as artistic expression, occurs with increasing frequency. While on the world stage we are limited in an effective response, we can in our own way give witness and make reparation. Acts of atonement for sacrilegious behavior is not only a fitting response of the Catholic Church but also something we are compelled to do out of love for God."

"There are also many worthy prayers of reparation available in our missals and online from Catholic sources. These can be prayed at appropriate times in our churches and at home with our families."

"May God extend His mercy and assistance to us as we struggle to achieve His Will in this secular world increasingly adverse to the message of Christ. Mary's prayers will also come to our aid, as we seek her intercession."

-Excerpts from the letter from the Bishop

Prayer of Reparation from Bishop Schneider and his Archbishop

IESU DULCISIME, REDEMPTOR

On the First Friday of the month, we offer a "Iesu dulcissime, Redemptor" prayer. It is an Act of Dedication of the Human Race to Jesus Christ the King. In a particular way, we pray for the conversion of sinners and for the unity of the humanity.

Most sweet Jesus,

Redeemer of the human race,

look down upon us humbly prostrate before you.

We are yours, and yours we wish to be;

but to be more surely united with you,

behold each one of us freely consecrates himself today to your Most Sacred Heart.

Many indeed have never known you;

many, too, despising your precepts, have rejected you.

Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus,

and draw them to your Sacred Heart.

Be King, O Lord,

not only of the faithful who have never forsaken you,

but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned you;

grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house,

lest they die of wretchedness and hunger.

Be King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions,

or whom discord keeps aloof,

and call them back

to the harbor of truth and the unity of faith,

so that soon there may be

but one flock and one Shepherd.

Grant, O Lord, to your Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm;

give tranquility of order to all nations;

make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry:

Praise to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation;

to it be glory and honor forever. Amen.
