LET'S PRAY FOR OUR NEW POPE LEO XIV

CANON MENEY IS ON PRIESTLY RETREAT THIS WEEK. PRAY FOR HIM.

An explanation of some rites of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Benedict XVI in his Motu Proprio (July 2007) encourages all Catholics to acquire a "notable liturgical formation and a deep, personal familiarity with the earlier form of the liturgical celebration". We will then explore the theological, historical, devotional, liturgical, ritualistic, architectural, artistic, linguistic, practical, legalistic, mystical… aspects of the August Sacrifice.

Ad Orientem

On the feast of the Ascension, the angels tell the Apostles that Jesus will come back as he left: like the rising sun. The churches in the Roman style (until Gothic), had occuli (eyes) that are little openings above the altar allowing Jesus to be seen coming would it happen during Mass! The priest and congregation turn to the East (Orient) as a consequence of the virtue of Hope. The Celebrant leads the congregation to the path of Heaven, the faithful actively follow.

The Priest is the mediator between men and God. Trivially he can be considered during Mass as a bus driver keeping his eyes on the road. Everytime he turns around, checking on passengers - dominus vobiscum - the passengers remind him to stay focused - et cum spiritu tuo. ☺, We are far from the idea of the celebrant turning his back to the people.
