LET'S PRAY FOR OUR NEW POPE LEO XIV

An explanation of some rites of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Benedict XVI in his Motu Proprio (July 2007) encourages all Catholics to acquire a "notable liturgical formation and a deep, personal familiarity with the earlier form of the liturgical celebration". We will then explore the theological, historical, devotional, liturgical, ritualistic, architectural, artistic, linguistic, practical, legalistic, mystical… aspects of the August Sacrifice.

Hanc Igitur

The Feast of Pentecost and descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles lead to talk of this prayer and the gesture of the priest. He extends his two hands flat upon the chalice and says " These offerings then…" . St Denys the Carthusian explains that the priest imitates here the old attitude of the Rabbi offering the Lamb to be offered. In their own name and in the name of the people present, by the imposition of their hands, they passed on their own identity to the animal now representing themselves. It is a transfer. The victim represents their own persons and those they represent.

The words used by the three different Hanc Igitur (For the year, on Easter and on Pentecost) express this idea very well. It is always the same idea. I unite myself with the Sacrifice of Jesus. Better said, I identify myself with it. I am the true victim offered. Is my offering pleasing to God? So we ask God to accept it.

The hands in certain liturgy are moved above the Chalice like a flying dove. Veni Sancte Spiritu.

Our oblation to God is a fruit of the grace of God!

A Chalice for the Oratory

The Chalice has been paid for and above! Thank you for your generosity and may God reward you! Donors will be linked to each Mass celebrated with it.
