Mass Intentions

Envelopes to request Masses are available. Have charity both to ask for Masses to be said for your departed as well to be reasonable in your requests. Only 350 masses are available a year. We do have open dates for Mass intentions.

An explanation of some rites of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Benedict XVI in his Motu Proprio (July 2007) encourages all Catholics to acquire a "notable liturgical formation and a deep, personal familiarity with the earlier form of the liturgical celebration". We will then explore the theological, historical, devotional, liturgical, ritualistic, architectural, artistic, linguistic, practical, legalistic, mystical… aspects of the August Sacrifice.

Little Elevation

The conclusion of the canon, known as little elevation is a hymn to the Blessed Trinity: The rubics of the Mass say the Celebrant, reverently taking the Host between the thumb and index finger of his right hand, makes the sign of the cross with It from lip to lip over the Chalice, which he holds with his left hand around the node beneath the cup, saying:

Per ip + sum, et cum ip + so, et in ip + so. Doing so He makes reference to the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, Second Person of the Trinity.

He makes the sign of the cross similarly with the Host twice between the Chalice and his breast, beginning at the lip of the Chalice, saying: est tibi Deo Patri + omnipotenti, Honoring then the Father*, in unitate Spiritus + Sancti,* Honoring the Holy Ghos*t* Then, holding the Host over the Chalice with his right hand, and the Chalice with his left, he elevates It somewhat, together with the Host, saying: omnis honor et gloria. Professing the Unity of the Three Persons*.*

The bells ring.

A Pontifical Mass

Bishop Provost is coming to celebrate a Pontifical Mass on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of Priesthood.

Three reasons you should come: 1- the Bishop is the Father of the community from whom all graces flow on your souls. He delegates his power to canon (Jurisdiction). 2 - The Liturgy of the Mass of a bishop is the standard celebration of which the other Masses (Solemn, Sung or Low) are coming from. Some gestures of the priest celebrating a low Mass make sense only in relation to the Bishop's Mass.

3 - Even though each Mass carries the same Mystery, the accidental fruits of the Mass varies with the solemnity of its celebration (One gets more grace at a sung Mass than at a low one). Hence the Pontifical Mass…
