Mass Intentions

Envelopes to request Masses are available. Have charity both to ask for Masses to be said for your departed as well to be reasonable in your requests. Only 350 masses are available a year. We do have open dates for Mass intentions.

An explanation of some rites of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Benedict XVI in his Motu Proprio (July 2007) encourages all Catholics to acquire a "notable liturgical formation and a deep, personal familiarity with the earlier form of the liturgical celebration". We will then explore the theological, historical, devotional, liturgical, ritualistic, architectural, artistic, linguistic, practical, legalistic, mystical… aspects of the August Sacrifice.

Una Cum Famulo Tuo. The Feast of St Peter and Paul invite us to consider this prayer. We pray with our Pope, N, your servant. In liturgical books wherever we are to identify a person the letter N. is marked, short for "Nomen =name". We do not pray for an idea, but for a person.

St Paul invites us to pray for our shepherds (Heb, 13-7). We name in particular and foremost, the bishop of the First Seat, who is the only one, out of honour and distinction, to be called the Holy Father, our Pope, that is our Father. It is just and right that as we pray for the unity of the Church, we pray for the One who is the Center of the Communion, the One who - as St Ireneus says - leads the Church with which all churches need to be united. He presides the Church as the successor of Peter upon which the Church was founded. This has been a common practice everywhere… and in the the 5th Centuries is noted that Dioscore, Patriarch of Alexandria dared - incredible fact - to remove the name of the Pope from the Canon of the Mass. The pope of the time was Leo.

In 529, the council of Vaison remembered that missing the practice to name the Pope at the canon of the Mass was separating oneself from the Universal Church. We name the Pope and the Bishop for the same reasons: "Obey your prelates and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls" (Heb 17-13).

Sanctuary Candle

Contact Steven Coco(scoco729@hotmail.com) to reserve the Sanctuary Candle in honor of a loved one. The donation is $30 for the week, which can be mailed or placed in a labeled envelope in the collection basket. Please indicate for whom the candle will burn on the envelope or email the name to Steven. There are many open dates. Getting a sanctuary candle is another way to pray for loved ones, especially deceased.

Mark your calendars:

July is the month of the Precious Blood. It is good practice to recite the Litany of the Most Precious Blood daily.

Today, July 6-There will be a 2nd collection at each Mass for the Sister Adorers.

NO Vespers in July and August

Good stewardship.

You have been blessed with many talents. Sharing them is good practice. Do not hesitate to step forward. Your help is needed. For example, Cheryl Matz would be happy to share her talents with you regarding flower arrangements. Are there any good souls blessed with sewing skills?
