Mass Intentions

Envelopes to request Masses are available. Have charity both to ask for Masses to be said for your departed as well to be reasonable in your requests. Only 350 masses are available a year. We do have open dates for Mas s intentions.

An explanation of some rites of the Extraordinary Form of the Mass

Benedict XVI in his Motu Proprio (July 2007) encourages all Catholics to acquire a "notable liturgical formation and a deep, personal familiarity with the earlier form of the liturgical celebration". We will then explore the theological, historical, devotional, liturgical, ritualistic, architectural, artistic, linguistic, practical, legalistic, mystical… aspects of the August Sacrifice.

Te Igitur. The canon of the Mass opens with this prayer. As well known, the Liturgy is the manifestation of the Prayer of the Church but not the one of the individual celebrant who is nothing but its servant. The Priest disappears to give place to the One and Eternal Priest, Jesus Christ.

However, the priest is not a machine without heart, therefore, four privileged moments are given to the priest for personal prayer or recollection: 1 and 2: the Commemorations that is when he thinks about those, living or dead, the Mass is said for. 3 : The priest has a little time to meditate, just after receiving the Precious Body of Our Lord (notice that no time is given after the reception of the Precious Blood). 4 : He recollects his mind with personal prayer just here, between the Sanctus and the Te Igitur as he enters into the Canon of the Mass.

The rubric says : : The priest poses a moment, raises his hands and eyes toward Heaven, places his hands on the altar, and then says : the Igitur….
