Consecration and Convocation of the Oblates:

Mark your calendars for the Consecration of the Oratory. A Consecration of a church is a very rare ceremony that few have been able to see. Truly it will transform the Oratory as a Gate of Heaven even more than now. Be present, invite friends and family. To secure your spot, RSVP to sfdssulphur@institute-christ-king.org After you have sent RSVP, you will receive email confirmation of your reservation. Around 100 seats are still available so far.

The ceremony will start with the veneration of the relics to be inserted into the altar. They are so far the relics of St. Theophane Venard, St. Maria Goretti, the Holy Redeemer Martyrs of Daimiel, Spain.

Then comes a thorough purification of the outside walls of the Oratory. Three times the bishop will knock at the doors. Only the last time the deacon opens to the King of the kings.

Follow an impressive ceremony: The Bishop takes possession of the place by writing with his crosier the alphabets in Greek and Latin on the floors. The Word of God rules. .

He will bless very special water, made of water, salt, ashes and wine. The "Gregorian Water" that is to be used only at the Consecration of that church.

Here is an Extract of the Consecratory Preface: "In this Your house, we beseech You, O Lord, may the sick be healed by the grace of the Holy Spirit; may the infirm recover; the lame be cured; the lepers cleansed; the blind receive sight; and demons be cast out. Here, by Your favor, O Lord, may the afflictions of all the weak be dispelled, and the bonds of all sins be loosed. May the infirmities of all the weak here be dispelled, O Lord, with Your approval, and may the bonds of all sins be loosed. May all who enter this temple to rightly petition for favors rejoice that they have obtained everything; and having received the mercy for which they pray, may they glory forever in the gift of Your compassion. Through the same Jesus Christ..."
