Proper Attire in Church

The pleasantly warm weather has returned (for which we are grateful). For some, it might seem more difficult to dress appropriately for church, but it is expedient that we do.

Different kinds and qualities of clothing are appropriate for different occasions or activities; when we work at home, or in the garden, we do not dress in suit and tie or a dinner dress, neither do we wear casual-ware or less covering attire when at the public square. Consider the priest and oblate, who always wears his cassock regardless of the sometime sweltering heat of the day, because this is required of him and because this is what is proper.

Modest dress express the respect we ought to have for ourselves, and the respect we expect from others. Clothing covers the body because it is sacred, and it is part of the mystery of life, which is sacred. Modest dress also takes into account our wounded nature, something which is much forgotten or denied by the worldly at heart. Let us not be blind like those who have not been properly instructed.

With this said, we must dress with extra care when we attend Holy Mass. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing do not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts in church, and especially on Sundays are encouraged to wear slacks and a dress shirt. Ladies and girls should wear skirts or dresses falling at least below the knee (no exposed backs or shoulders) and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with the apostolic tradition.

The weathered phrase "our Sunday best" which has never gone out of date, shows how clearly special it is for us to assist at the Sacred Mysteries. In doing so, we show particular respect for the sacredness of the place and for our neighbor who comes to be spiritually strengthened and renewed, not to be immersed in temptation. Mass is not the place for courtship.

If we remember, that during Holy Mass, the church becomes Calvary, that Heaven and earth meet, and time is temporarily joined with eternity; if we are lively aware that the most sacred mystery of the Incarnation is renewed, and the infinite fruits of redemption are applied to each one of us, these seemly small yet most important details of demeanor take on a whole new meaning. Christ is your Divine host and we are His truly blessed guests. He pours forth into us His grace, and prayers for us to His Father. Here, legions of angels come adore Him in awe. And so should we!
