HOLY HOUR

Please note that there will be a Holy Hour every Thursday at 7:00 PM unless otherwise mentioned.

2024 MASS INTENTIONS

The books for Mass intentions for 2024 are closed.

Please do not hesitate to request private Masses for your intentions. Even though a date cannot be set in advance, a Mass will be said.

To request a Mass, please use the white/red envelopes found in the church.

Further instructions on the back page of this bulletin.

FROM THE DESK OF THE RECTOR

Dear faithful,

Thank you for your generosity with regards to the Seminary collection. You have raised about $4,253 for the material needs of the seminarians of the Institute in Gricigliano, Italy. The seminarians remember all benefactors of the Institute and they pray for your intentions everyday during their afternoon Rosary. Please be assured of their grateful prayers for your generosity.

Thank you also to all volunteers who helped our with Mulch Madness. All the garden beds are now well protected for the summer. It is important to beautify God's House because Beauty is synonymous with Truth, Who is God Himself.

Regarding the billboard in honor of the Sacred Heart as a counter message to what is made prevalent everywhere during the month of June in the media, the men of the Holy Name and the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary are raffling a copy of William Bouguereau's The Virgin with Angels. Please consider contributing to this cause whether by donating or participating in the raffle. It costs about $4,400 for a billboard along the I-280. Fewer funds will get us a billboard at locations with lesser traffic. The deadline to reserve the billboard is May 6th.

In prayerful union, Canon Sequeira

ANNOUNCEMENTS & INFORMATION

FIRST COMMUNIONS

Once again we are blessed by God to have children who will be making their First Communions this year.

They will receive this august Sacrament on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 12, at the 11:00 AM Mass.

Exams will be on Saturday April 27, and May 4 from 12 PM to 1 PM in the Social Hall.

First Confessions will be on Saturday May 11 after the 9 AM Mass.

On Mother's Day, Sunday May 12 at 11:00 AM will be the May Crowning, followed by the High Mass during which the children will receive their First Communions. At the end of the Mass, after a photo outside by the statue of Saint Anthony, they will be enrolled in the Confraternity of the Brown Scapular inside at the Communion rail of the church.

MOTHER'S DAY ROSE SALE

On Sunday May 12, after all Masses, roses will be on sale in the vestibule of the Oratory.

WISDOM OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

As soon as you realize that you have given way to anger, correct the fault straight away by an act of meekness toward the person who annoyed you. The only remedy against lying is to correct the lie as soon as we realize we have told it; so we must also repair our anger instantly by an act of meekness, because, as the saying goes, fresh wounds are the quickest to be healed. (IDL, III, 8)

Prepare your heart to receive from the loving hand of God afflictions as well as consolations; be ready to receive either equally, without desiring or refusing them.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE NOVENA WITH CARDINAL BURKE

His Eminence Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke has announced a nine-month Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe, which began on March 12 and will last until December 12, feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The purpose of this novena is to gain the protection of Our Blessed Mother in this time of disease, war, and deep spiritual confusion. Let us join His Eminence in reciting the special novena prayer during this period! More information is available here:

BAKE SALE FOR THE MISSIONS

On Sunday, May 5th, in the church vestibule between Masses, we will have a youth-sponsored bake sale fundraiser for our mission school in Gabon, Africa. These donations will be sent in memory of the late Canon Fragelli who built a school, dispensary, and orphanage in our Mouila mission, and died last year from health complications. Last year, our children raised over $1,000 to help build a kindergarten classroom. Consider contributing a baked good to the fundraiser by signing up in the vestibule or emailing kacmcg@gmail.com.

SACRED HEART BILLBOARD ALONG I-280

In order to raise funds for the billboard for the month of June, the men of the Holy Name Society and Confraternity of the Rosary will be auctioning off an image of The Virgin with Angels by William-Adolphe Bouguereau in the vestibule of the oratory. Please consider supporting this initiative.

SHORT SERIES ON THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT: FORTITUDE & FEAR OF THE LORD

Continuing with our series on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, today we look at the Gifts of Fortitude and Fear of the Lord.

FORTITUDE

In the Summa Theologiae, the Angelic Doctor states that the word 'fortitude' denotes a certain firmness of mind which is acquired in both in doing good and enduring evil especially with regard to evils that are difficult. The virtue of fortitude in man shows that he can have this firmness to obtain goods or fight off evils that are difficult so that he does not give up when trying to accomplish an arduous good, or endure a grievous evil. This is true for many things in our daily life.

But not for all things. Most especially with the work of going to heaven. Sometimes, we are unable to attain the goal of our work. At other times, we cannot avoid evils or dangers to the point of death. Most especially when it comes to the good spiritual work of attaining heaven, the Holy Spirit has to be involved. With His help, we can accomplish our goals (of attaining heaven), and avoid any perils on our way. He works these things in our souls to bring us to everlasting life, which is the reason for which we do good deeds, where we are safe from all dangers. For this end, a confidence of achieving our goal is given to us by the Holy Spirit. By this confidence, we can be sure of overcoming any difficulty that we encounter. This is the Gift of Fortitude.

This confidence given by the Holy Spirit makes the difference between the virtue of fortitude and the Gift of Fortitude that perfects it. The virtue perfects the soul in enduring all perils, but it does not give us confidence of overcoming all dangers as does the Gift. This gift is obtained by humility: acknowledging our weakness before God, and seeking recourse to prayer and the Sacraments.

FEAR OF THE LORD

Fundamentally, fear arises in us as a response to an evil.

There are different types of fear, just as we can experience different types of evil. Human fear is that by which Saint Peter denied Our Lord. It is a worldly fear commonly called human respect. It is a fear by which we turn away from God. However, sometimes because of evils we fear, we turn to God. These can be two types of evils: the evil of punishment, and the evil of fault. If we turn to God because of the evil of punishment, this is servile fear. If we turn to God because of the fear of committing a sin, this is filial fear, since it is a fear of offending God our Father. There is also a fear called initial fear that is experienced when we face both these evils at the same time and we turn to God because of them.

Of these different types of fear, it is clear that human fear is clearly not a gift of the Holy Spirit. This is also true of servile fear, even though it is from the Holy Spirit because by it we are only afraid of the evil of punishment. It is still in some way compatible with the will to sin. Thus the Gift of Fear of the Lord is a type of filial fear, a fear of committing a sin, of offending God.

The Gift of Fear allows us to open our hearts to the action of the Holy Spirit, to trust Him in His work of making us into saints. With this Gift in our souls, we no longer resist His inspirations. We have full confidence that it comes from Him, revering God and no longer separating ourselves from Him.

While Saint Thomas does not assign a particular gift that perfects the virtue of temperance we can work out that the Gift of Fear of the Lord serves this purpose since it is the virtue that seeks not to offend God by keeping a control over the disordered appetites. In the end, in heaven, the reverential aspect of the Gift of Fear of the Lord will remain since we will be in awe of the Divine Majesty. The evil of punishment being absent, the fear of offending God will no longer be in our hearts.
