FROM THE DESK OF THE RECTOR

Very dear faithful,

On this Sunday, we commemorate the Seven Sorrows of Our Blessed Mother Mary. In the Epistle of the Mass, Saint Paul exhorts us to live our lives in a manner worthy of our destiny in Heaven. The Gospel of the Mass taken from Saint Matthew is the passage in which Our Lord gives us the great commission to love Our God with our whole heart, mind, and soul and to love our neighbor as ourselves.

No one other than our Blessed Mother exemplifies these two commandments better. When it comes to love of God there is none who surpasses her. She was full of grace, destined from eternity to be the Mother of the Redeemer, and she consented to God's will to suffer the death of His Son and Her Savior for our salvation. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux was able to say that love inflicted on the heart of Mary the same suffering that the nails caused in the Body of Jesus.

Our Lady's love for us also knew no limits. Saint Alphonsus of Ligouri says that knowing of the Father's will that Her Son be crucified to save us, she would have nailed Our Lord to the Cross herself if His executioners had failed.

Let us increase our devotion to Our Mother by staying faithful to our daily recitation of the Rosary.

In prayerful union, Canon Sequeira

GARAGE SALE

The annual parish Garage Sale is planned for next Saturday, September 21 from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM in Fr. Wicken's Hall.

To all those who wish to sell something please come to Fr. Wicken's Hall at 5:30 PM on the evening of Friday, September 20 to set up.

All parishioners are welcome on Saturday morning after Mass to rummage around for some exciting deals. Being that the sale will only be one day, please join us to support this event for your parish.

INFANT KING NOVENA

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

Prayer revealed by Our Lady to the Ven. Father Cyril of the Mother of God, O.C.D.

WHAT ARE THE EMBER DAYS?

This week we observe the Ember Days of autumn. The “Ember Days,” as the original Latin name suggests, are observed at the four seasons of the year—the English word “Ember” seems to be a corruption of the Latin Quator Tempora, which literally means “four times” (a more archaic, but more literal, translation refers to these days in English as the “Quarter Tense” days). The Ember days are observed on the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of the quarterly Ember weeks. The Ember weeks fall the week after Ash Wednesday (spring), in the octave of Pentecost (summer), after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (autumn) and after the feast of Saint Lucy (winter), giving rise to the convenient mnemonic jingle: Lenty, Penty, Crucy, Lucy. Fasting at the four seasons of the year goes back to the Old Testament (Zacharias 8:19). Pope Saint Leo the Great (+ 461) considers the Ember Days, at least generically, to be of apostolic origin, although the current liturgical arrangement of the Ember days was established by Pope Saint Gregory VII (+1085).

The Ember days are traditionally penitential days of fast and abstinence, although since the reform of the fasting regulations in 1966 (after Vatican II), fasting on these days is no longer obligatory; it is still a pious and praiseworthy custom to fast and/or abstain on these days, for those whose constitution and daily duties enable them to do so. In the missal, the Ember days all have their own special Mass formula, with an additional reading prescribed for each Ember Wednesday and five additional readings prescribed for each Ember Saturday. (For many centuries, it was the custom of the Roman Church to confer holy orders on Ember Saturdays, with one of the seven orders — minor and major — being conferred after each reading.) If a feast day occurs and displaces the full liturgical observance of the Ember Mass, the Ember day is still commemorated at the feast-day Mass by the addition of the corresponding orations (Collect, Secret, Postcommunion), and the Gospel proper to the Ember Mass is read at the end of the feast-day Mass in place of the usual Last Gospel, just like when a feast is celebrated in place of a Sunday or Lenten feria. Thematically, from an agricultural point of view, the readings of the fall Ember Days focus on grapes and wine.

The Ember days have two primary purposes: First, to beg God’s blessings for a plentiful harvest at the four seasons of the year; and in this sense the Ember Days purify the ancient Roman, pagan nature festivals and fulfill the Hebrew festivals of the first fruits, which were prescribed in the Old Testament. Secondly, their purpose is to pray for vocations and do penance for the sanctification of the clergy, a practice going back to the Book of Acts, which testifies that “they had ordained to them priests in every church, and had prayed with fasting” (Acts 14:22).

WISDOM OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

Those who have made great progress will constantly press ahead, never for a moment thinking that they have reached the goal.

Even children and weak people can love God when everything is going smoothly; only souls that are strong and constant can love in rough times.
