FROM THE DESK OF THE RECTOR

Very dear faithful,

Thank you very much for all your prayers, good wishes, and gifts on the occasion of my birthday last week. Yours prayers are most important to me since I need very much the help that they bring.

This Sunday's Gospel puts us before the great liberality of God towards sinful humanity. We are like the paralyzed man, sick because we wallow in our sins. Our generous and ever-loving Lord tells us in the Sacrament of Confession to rise up by sorrow for our sins, to take up our beds by satisfaction for having committed them, and to go to our eternal home where we will have peace in our conscience forever.

Saint Paul, therefore, tells us to respond to God's great liberality by being thankful to Him. Thanksgiving is of the essence of liturgical prayer because it testifies that God is the fullness and source of all good. To the calculating mind, being generous seems to be costly. To the generous heart, being greedy seem to be incomprehensible. In gratitude we are human, in generosity we are divine.

Our Lady who sang the Magnificat when she visited her cousin Saint Elizabeth, perfectly exemplifies this gratitude to God for His goodness. Let us allow Our Heavenly Mother to teach us to be grateful to God forever.

In prayerful union, Canon Sequeira

INFANT KING NOVENA

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

Prayer revealed by Our Lady to the Ven. Father Cyril of the Mother of God, O.C.D.

TRANSUBSTANTIATION FOR BEGINNERS (by Canon Francis Ripley, Source: catholicanswers.com)

The earliest text concerning the Real Presence is found in Saint Paul's first Epistle to the Corinthians, written probably about A.D. 57, or 27 years after Christ's death. Modern scholars believe Jesus died in the year 30 and that Saul was converted early in 37. Some are convinced his conversion was as early as 34. It seems certain that 1 Corinthians was written after the Passover of 57. This means the newly converted Saul, now Paul, was plunged into the infant Church as early as four and not later than seven years after the death of Christ. He was an eyewitness of the earliest Eucharistic celebrations or liturgical practices. Consider this in light of what Vatican I taught about Revelation: "After the Ascension of the Lord the Apostles handed on to their hearers what He had said and done. They did this with a clear understanding, which they enjoyed after they had been instructed by the events of Christ's risen life and taught by the light of the Spirit of truth" (Decree on Revelation, 19).

Saint Paul's Eucharistic teaching in 1 Corinthians leaves us in no doubt. "For this is what I received from the Lord and in turn passed on to you: That on the same night as he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it, and broke it, and He said, 'This is My Body which is for you; do this as a memorial of Me.' In the same way He took the cup after supper and said, 'This cup is a new covenant in My Blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of Me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming His death. And so anyone who eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be behaving unworthily toward the Body and Blood of the Lord. Everyone is to recollect himself before eating this bread and drinking this cup, because a person who eats and drinks without recognizing the body is eating and drinking his own condemnation" (1 Cor. 11:23-29).

In the previous chapter the Apostle wrote, "The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the Blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is communion with the Body of Christ" (1 Cor. 11:16). His words are clear. The only possible meaning is that the bread and wine at the consecration become Christ's actual Body and Blood. Evidently Saint Paul believed that the words Christ had said at the Last Supper, "This is my Body," meant that really and physically the bread is His Body. In fact Christ was not merely saying that the bread was His Body; He was decreeing that it should be so and that it is so.

WISDOM OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

If you really want to love God, keep loving Him more and more. Never look back. Move forward constantly.

To love our neighbors does not mean merely to wish them well, but also to do them all the good that it is in our power to do.

One must be prepared to die rather than to sin deliberately. But if one does sin, he should be prepared to lose everything except courage hope and a good resolution.
