FROM THE DESK OF THE RECTOR

Very dear faithful,

Today's Gospel is the one wherein Our Lord responds to the Pharisees: Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. Side by side with our duties to our country, we should also keep in mind our duties to God.

We certainly must pay the taxes we owe to the state which is charged with taking care of the common good. We must certainly be careful about doing our civic duties. This is what we render to Caesar. It is also important to recognize that just as we have different images and symbols of the state on the money that we use, we ourselves are created in the image of God. This is what we have to render to God. Our very selves.

Granted we have disfigured this image by our sins. It is no longer what it should be. However, if we do our duties towards Our Creator cooperating with His manifold graces, He will restore us. It is important to have confidence in God in the work that He does in our souls. What is demanded of us is prayer. Even the mediocrity of our prayers should not concern us. We must always do the best we can. God will take our pathetic efforts and restore our souls if we permit Him. After all, Our Father created us in His image. Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us. In prayerful union, Canon Sequeira

SEMINARY COLLECTION

On Sunday, October 27, the Feast of Christ the King, there will be a second collection taken up after all the Masses.

This year seven deacons were ordained priests, five subdeacons were ordained deacons, and nine acolytes were ordained subdeacons. The first year class of those entering the seminary this year has 31 men from various countries

Your prayers bear enormous fruit in such a generous response to God's call. However, we need your help to house and feed these men at seminary in Gricigliano.

Please be generous in your contribution so that we can receive and adequately form these young vocations to be your priests tomorrow.

INFANT KING NOVENA

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please, through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity (mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen. Prayer revealed to the Ven. Father Cyril of the Mother of God, O.C.D.

TRANSUBSTANTIATION FOR BEGINNERS (by Canon Francis Ripley, Source: catholicanswers.com)

Centuries later Thomas Aquinas, the greatest of the scholastic theologians, taught the same. He said that the existence in the Eucharist of Christ's real body and blood "cannot be grasped by the experience of the senses, but only by the faith which has divine authority and its support." He put it into his famous verse: "Sight, touch, and taste in thee are each deceived; the ear alone most safely is believed; I believe all the Son of God has spoken, than through his own word there is no truer token."

When Christ himself promised his Real Presence in the Eucharist, many of his disciples could not accept it. "This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?" (John 6:68). But Peter had the right mentality. "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the holy one of God" (John 6:69).

Here is a grave admonition of Pope Paul: "In the investigation of this mystery we follow the Magisterium of the Church like a star. The redeemer has entrusted the word of God, in writing and in tradition, to the Church's Magisterium to keep and to explain. We must have this conviction: 'what has since ancient times been preached and received with true Catholic faith throughout the Church is still true, even if it is not susceptible of a rational investigation or verbal explanation' (Augustine)."

But the Pope goes on to say something that is vitally important. He says that it is not enough merely to believe the truth. We must also accept the way the Church has devised to express that truth exactly. Here is what he says: "When the integrity of faith has been preserved, a suitable manner of expression has to be preserved as well. Otherwise our usual careless language may . . . give rise to false opinions in belief in very deep matters." (to be continued)

WISDOM OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

We must perform all our actions diligently, but never in a spirit of agitation or with undue haste. Otherwise, we will never do anything well.

Try hard never to excuse yourself when you are corrected or blamed for some slight fault. Oh, how useful this practice is!

MASS INTENTIONS FOR 2025

If you wish to request any Masses for the next calendar year, please pay careful attention to these guidelines, which are intended to promote the common good and to facilitate the very complicated work of scheduling the requests from many parishioners sometimes for the same date. The pastor is morally bound to see to it that all our parishioners have the same opportunity to have Masses offered for their loved ones and personal intentions, which is the reason for the directives explained below. Thank you for your cooperation in abiding by these norms.

- Beginning on Monday, November 4, Mass intentions will be accepted for 2025. No intentions will be accepted before that date (no exceptions).
- Please make sure only to use the envelopes which will be available in church beginning Sunday, November 3 in order to fill out your Mass requests (one envelope per Mass).
- In the first round of scheduling, there is a strict limit of 10 (ten) Mass intentions per household. If a greater number is submitted, all the requested intentions will be returned. After the new year, there will be an announcement in the bulletin if there are any remaining available spots for 2025.
- You may request specific dates, which will be accommodated to the extent possible, but no promise is made about dates.
- It is not possible to reserve multiple Sundays.
- A minimum stipend of $10 is suggested per Mass.
- For the time being, it is not possible to request a Mass by phone or e-mail. No Mass will be scheduled until the written request and accompanying Mass offering are received in the office. These may be submitted in the collection basket, by mail, or by coming in person to the sacristy.
