FROM THE DESK OF THE RECTOR

Very dear faithful,

With the elections looming up before us, careful consideration of the platforms of the two major candidates reveals to be very disappointing. It is rather unfortunate that both candidates present platforms that stray far from the Church's moral teaching.

This situation is not surprising given the general deterioration of morals in the society we live in. However, for a Catholic, this is hardly unexpected since this world is but a pause before our eternal life with God. Perfection will only be found in Heaven. Nothing on this earth is or will ever be perfect. Therefore, as we see in the letter of Cardinal Burke on the next two pages, we should cast our vote for the candidate who at least offers us a 'ray of hope.' It is rather obvious which one this is since as bad as the choice before us may be, one is clearly far worse than the other.

Please take note that tomorrow, the books will be opened for Mass Intentions. Mass intention envelopes are available from today. Instructions are on the back page.

Next Saturday, please join us for the Mass for Life, and our Rosary procession in Montclair. Details on facing page.

In prayerful union, Canon Sequeira

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

During the month of November, The Holy Name Society will be collecting donations for the Dominican Monastery of Our Lady of the Rosary in Summit, NJ. The cloistered, contemplative Dominican nuns there are in need of the following items: Paper Towels, Toilet Tissue, Kleenex, Flour, Sugar, and Brown Sugar. The donations can be left in Fr. Wickens Hall under the Holy Name Society's banner, which is near the statue of St. Francis.

WISDOM OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

Do not wish to be anything except what you are, and strive to be that perfectly.

Humility is a descending charity, and charity is an ascending humility.

MORAL QUESTIONS REGARDING VOTING

As Election Day approaches, many have raised serious moral questions regarding how to vote. Sadly, in our great nation, we confront a situation in which both major political parties espouse certain agenda which are flagrantly contrary to the most fundamental tenets of the moral law, agenda against the inviolable dignity of innocent and defenseless human life, agenda against the integrity of marriage and its fruit, the family, and agenda against the free exercise of the virtue of religion. As Catholics, we should be clear that the moral law is certainly binding for us, but it is, likewise, binding for all men and women because it is written upon the human heart by God. For Catholics, as for all men and women of good will, the question is: In fulfilling our civic duty to vote, how can we be obedient to the law of God written upon our hearts in the present situation of deplorable moral and therefore cultural decline and decay.

In attempting to answer the question of how to vote in good conscience, I refer to the Pastoral Letter, "On Our Civic Responsibility for the Common Good," which, as Archbishop of Saint Louis, I published on October 1, 2004. While I recommend the study of the Pastoral Letter, I offer the following indications for the question of how to vote with moral integrity.

- First and foremost, let us pray and fast for our nation that it will once again serve the good of all its citizens, especially of those who are threatened by the present prevalent anti-life, anti-family, and anti-religion agenda, by obedience to the moral law. Let us pray for the conversion of our national culture from violence and death to peace and life. If you are not already participating in the Nine-Month Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe – Mary Immaculate, Mother of God and Mother of America, "Return to Our Lady," invoking her intercession for the conversion of countless souls in our homes and in our nation to faith in God and obedience to His law, I invite you to join now, especially as we approach Election Day. The prayer of the Nine-Month Novena and spiritual reflections regarding our response to the current moral crisis in our nation can be found at the following site: Nine-Month Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe.
- Secondly, we must be abundantly clear and tirelessly steadfast in our opposition to the anti-life, anti-family, and anti-religion agenda which are destroying families, communities, and our nation. No candidate for public office should confuse a vote for him or her as support of the policies and programs of these iniquitous agenda.

Today, there is an urgent need for individuals and associations of individuals to raise the consciousness of the citizens of our nation to the manner in which these agenda threaten the common good, the good of individuals, of families, of local communities, of the nation. We must use all the means of communication at hand to speak to the hearts of our fellow citizens, for God has written on every human heart his law which serves human life, marriage and the family, and the practice of religion.

3. We must study carefully the agenda of each candidate to see whether a candidate, even though he or she espouses morally objectionable programs and policies, will, in some way, limit the evil. If a candidate will, at least, limit the evil, we must support the limitation while insisting on the need to eradicate the evil altogether.
4. We must further consider whether it is reasonable to hope that a candidate in question will, at least, hear the voice of a rightly formed conscience on questions like procured abortion, sexual reassignment, and religious persecution, that is, whether there is hope that our opposition, as indicated in no. 2, will receive any hearing at all. While the agenda of both major political parties is so fundamentally objectionable, we must ask ourselves whether there may be some ray of hope to advance the transformation of our national politics in accord with the moral law by voting for a particular candidate.
5. Before the desperate situation of our national politics today, some have concluded that they cannot vote for any candidate, but, if there is even the smallest ray of hope to effect some change in view of effecting ever greater change for the common good, it is not right for us to fail in responding to the ray of hope. Only if no candidate provides any ray of hope of serving, at least in some part, the common good, especially in what pertains to human life, marriage and the family, and the practice of religion, are we justified in not voting at all. Yes, the present situation of national politics is morally disgusting, but we are a people of hope and can never excuse ourselves from continuing the daily work of seeking the conversion of our personal lives and the transformation of our national culture.

It is my hope that the above indications will help you in fulfilling your duty as a citizen to vote for the candidates who will most support the common good. Be assured of my prayers for you and your homes. Raymond Leo Cardinal BURKE

MASS INTENTIONS FOR 2025

If you wish to request any Masses for the next calendar year, please pay careful attention to these guidelines, which are intended to promote the common good and to facilitate the very complicated work of scheduling the requests from many parishioners sometimes for the same date. The pastor is morally bound to see to it that all our parishioners have the same opportunity to have Masses offered for their loved ones and personal intentions, which is the reason for the directives explained below. Thank you for your cooperation in abiding by these norms.

- Beginning on Monday, November 4, Mass intentions will be accepted for 2025. No intentions will be accepted before that date (no exceptions).
- Please make sure only to use the envelopes which will be available in church beginning Sunday, November 3 in order to fill out your Mass requests. If you have several Masses to request, please feel free to put them all in the same envelop with one check and a slip of paper listing all intentions and your desired dates.
- In the first round of scheduling, there is a strict limit of 10 (ten) Mass intentions per household to ensure that all have an opportunity to have Masses said for their intentions. If a greater number is submitted, all the requested intentions will be returned. After the new year, there will be an announcement in the bulletin if there are any remaining available spots for 2025.
- You may request specific dates, which will be accommodated to the extent possible, but no promise is made about dates. It is not possible to reserve multiple Sundays. Each household may request only one Sunday.
- A minimum stipend of $10 is suggested per Mass. No Mass will be scheduled until the written request and accompanying Mass offering are received in the office. These may be submitted in the collection basket, by mail, or by coming in person to the sacristy. Financial difficulties should not stop you from requesting Masses. In this case, enclose any offering as you are able.
- For the time being, it is not possible to request a Mass by phone or e-mail.
