AT MT CARMEL HIGH SCHOOL

From the Vice-Rector, Canon Commins

Dear Faithful,

Join us TODAY, Sunday for a free concert next door at First Presbyterian Church. We are grateful for their generosity in allowing us to use the building since it wouldn't have been possible here at the Shrine due to the fire. We will be having two of our dear Sisters Adorers on that day! They will be happy to give you a little update regarding the situation of their community in Europe and soon in the US!

Free Baroque Concert at 2pm

Program - "Magic of the Flutes"

Flauto Dolce (Recorder) - Mirja Lorenz

Flauto Traverso (Baroque Flute) - Forrest Ransburg

Chitarrone (Theorbo Lute) - Joel Spears

6401 WOODLAWN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

The 6401 Woodlawn Heritage Foundation is an IRS public charity established for the express purpose of restoring, maintaining and developing the historic landmark church of the National Shrine of Christ the King located at 6401 S. Woodlawn Avenue.

ALL CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS ARE TAX-DEDUCTIBLE

Ask your employer or place of business if they would like to make a tax-deductible contribution or matching donation to restore this gem of history.

Please make all checks payable to: “6401 Woodlawn Heritage Foundation”

Report from the Project Manager, the Reverend Canon Matthew Weaver:

Our Lord is truly risen! Indeed, the restoration of the National Shrine of Christ the King is well underway. Thanks to the tremendous generosity and dedication of many friends and benefactors across the country, the Institute of Christ the King has been blessed to secure funds for the completion of Phase I in this monumental undertaking. As we continue to raise funds for Phase II, already in progress, I would like to tell you of the immediate projects we have in line:

- Restoration of the 12 original steel window frames (currently underway): funding complete
- Installation of 1/4" laminated replacement glass (currently underway): funding complete
- Interior mechanical, electrical and plumbing engineering and design: $60,000 needed
- Preparation of basement for new restrooms and mechanical rooms: $30,000 needed
- Insulation of ceiling with high-efficiency closed-cell spray insulation: $120,000 needed

Pledge and Memorial Opportunities: please contact Canon Weaver at (773) 363-7409

For more information, call Canon Weaver or visit us at: shrinelandmark.org

Together, we will build a glorious a National Shrine to the King of Kings, our Risen Lord Jesus.

May He shower you with graces and blessing during this most holy time!
