1ST HOME RUN DERBY

AT MT CARMEL HIGH SCHOOL

From the Vice-Rector, Canon Commins

Dear Faithful,

Today all Canons from the American Province are heading to Saint Louis for their annual priestly retreat. They will have the joy to be together for a few days, to pray together and to receive conferences from their Prior General Monsignor Gilles Wach.

We recommend them to your prayers as they will certainly keep you in theirs. We are particularly grateful to Father Compton for substituting here at the Shrine this week, allowing to maintain our weekly schedule.

We also recommend to your prayers all the seminarians of the Institute starting now their important and challenging study time before the final exams for the upcoming Ordinations.

May Divine Providence continue to bless our dear canons and Institute.

Thank you!

What's Next?

LET'S KEEP GOING

Thanks be to God and to your most generous and enthusiastic support, we've completed our first goal. We could not have done it without God, and we could not have done it without you. Thank you. As interest and excitement continue to grow around the nation, let's start taking care of Woodlawn. This neighborhood will soon be the destination of thousands, of which you are the blessed first. While construction goes full steam ahead on the shrine, let's start pulling our weight to help make the community a beautiful place to visit – a beautiful place to call home. Let's make our home beautiful.

See next week's bulletin for drawings & details on the next step. To find out how you can help, Email our Project Manager, Rev. Canon Matthew Weaver, at info@institute-christ-king.org
