Wisdom from St Francis de Sales

"It is deceiving oneself to long for martyrdom and yet be unwilling to suffer the slight crosses of daily life"

Dear Parents,

Children are the joy of our Shrine's family, and your reward is great in heaven for generously accepting this gift of Divine Providence. When you have a crying child, particularly during the sermon or the canon of the Mass, you are kindly asked to make use of the crying room. You are also requested to restrain them from running, banging on the pews, or damaging the items found in them, or in the other rooms of the basement. It is of paramount importance to the safety of all that you never leave them unattended in the church, or the parking lots. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation, and, above all, for your presence here at the Shrine of Christ the King. If you have any suggestions as to how we could make it easier for you to care for your children during Mass, please do not hesitate to let me know. May God bless and keep you.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 4

SHRINE PICNIC

From the Vicar: the Reverend Canon Joel Estrada

Dear Faithful,

Being sons and daughters of Saint Francis de Sales, let us reflect on an anecdote of him written by one of his brother bishops, Bishop Camus:

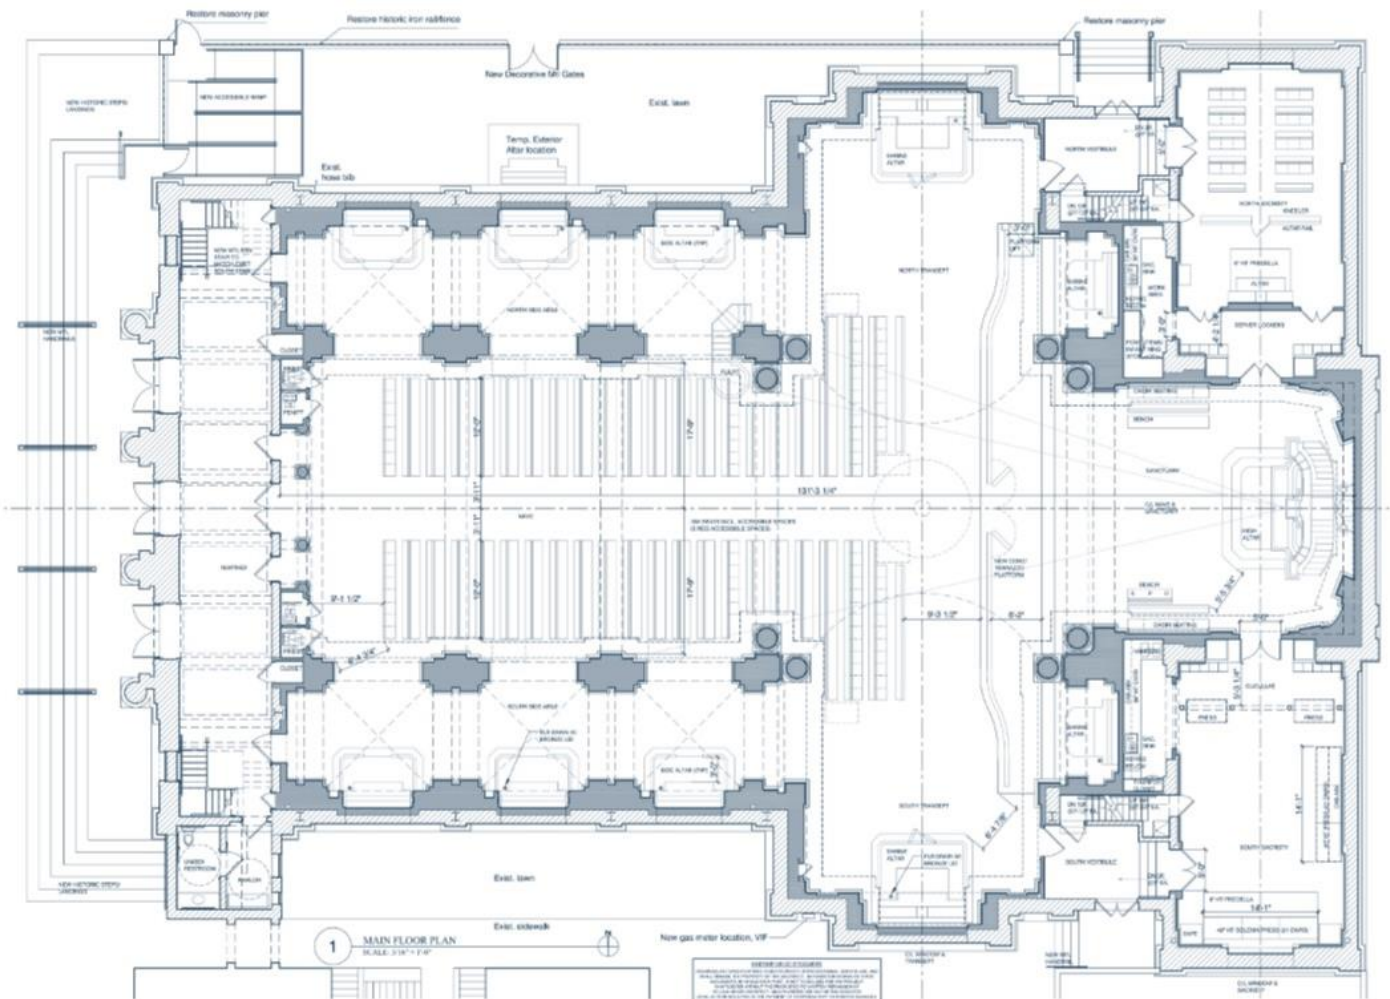

There were not many things which [Saint] Francis de Sales advocated more consistently than a holy calmness of mind. He frequently compared this life to a ship steering towards the port of salvation, saying that no matter how stormy the sea, we must be good pilots and keep the helm straight. Hence we must remember to direct our eyes always on the guiding compass—and what is the Christian's magnet if not God's holy will, upon which we must diligently keep our eyes? All the disorder which confronts our minds simply arises because we, poor creatures that we are, fail to direct our glance to God and as a result, our tempers and inclinations are changed when disturbed by the many chances and accidents of life. But if one will dwell for a moment upon how this endless diversity is in perfect uniformity with God's will and how He permits prosperity and adversity, sickness and health, poverty and riches, life and death to His creatures, remembering that in all of these one may find occasion to glorify God—indeed, such a person will realize the importance of that enviable spirit of Christian indifference [which means having a pious mental attitude to bless and thank God for all that His Providence may ordain, while leaving God to will and do whatever He pleases in us, blessing His Goodness and Mercy] which truly fosters a holy calmness of mind.

Mechanical Design & Engineering

UPCOMING MEETING

Ready and eager to begin the monumental task of building the church's interior, we will meet with the mechanical engineers later this week to finalize the design for the major mechanical systems.

Thanks to your enthusiasm and generous support, we are able to continue this tremendous project, and we want you to know how much the priests here pray for you each day in grateful return.
