FROM THE VICE-RECTOR, CANON JEAN-BAPTISTE COMMINS

Dear Shrine Faithful,

Two quotes for your meditation as we approach the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

St. John Eudes wrote, "Jesus lives in Her (Mary) soul and body...His Heart abides in Her heart, His Soul in Her soul ... His virtues, mysteries, and divine attributes are loving in Her heart..."

The Church in the Decree of St. John Eudes' Beautification declared: "Burning himself with singular love for the most Holy Hearts of Jesus and Mary, he was the first-and this was not without a kind of divine inspiration- who had the idea of a public cult in their honor. He is therefore to be regarded as the creator of this sweet devotion, for from the beginning of the foundation of his Congregation of Priests, he caused the Feast of these Hearts to be celebrated among his spiritual sons; as its doctor, for he composed for these Hearts a Mass and Office; lastly as its apostle, for he devoted himself with his whole heart to spreading everywhere this salutary devotion."

Let us, too, become doctor and apostle of the Sweet and Powerful Devotion!

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

Doing Things Right FROM TOP TO BOTTOM

“Do what’s right, avoid what’s wrong, and you will be happy”.
The timeless wisdom of this moral maxim is just as true in ethics as it is in construction. Doing things the right way is the best way.

Confident that God will provide what we need in order to give Him our best, the priests of the Shrine of Christ are dedicated to making sure that things are done right the first time around.

We want to rebuild this historic landmark church to last!

We rely on the dedicated work of local professional tradesmen, whose faith and devotion allow us to “go the extra mile” from top to bottom. These little details will help not only to beautify this magnificent church, but will also ensure the building’s longevity and perennial stability in the neighborhood of Woodlawn.

But we can’t do it without your help. Help us bless Woodlawn!
