ABOUT ST. JOSEPH SHRINE

A magnificent Victorian Gothic edifice completed in 1873 and noted as of national architectural significance, St. Joseph Shrine is a landmark center of Catholic Faith, culture, and community in Detroit's historic Eastern Market district. Since October 2016, the Canons of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest have served and led the local faithful by bringing daily Masses, regular devotions, liturgical instruction, and an active parish life. As a result, the parish community at St. Joseph Shrine continues to grow, enriching both young and old, individuals and families from all backgrounds and neighborhoods.

In July 2013, St. Joseph was merged with two nearby parishes. Then in October 2016, St. Joseph became its own parish under the spiritual and pastoral care of the Institute of Christ the King. In March 2020, the Parish was granted the designation of Archdiocesan Shrine in recognition of its vibrant spiritual growth and daily life.

FROM THE RECTOR, CANON MICHAEL STEIN

Dear Shrine Faithful,

Allow me to share with you the 7 Pillars of Wisdom from the most recent Aquinas Conference: 1) Chastity, 2) Innocence of Mind (Peaceable), 3) Moderation in Speech, 4) Docility, 5) Generosity in Action, 6) Maturity in Judgment, 7) Sincerity of Intention. With these in mind, is it not all the more evident how St. Joseph is a model of Wisdom?! Ite ad Joseph!

Prayer to St. Joseph by St. Francis de Sales

Historic Renewal Campaign Prayer

Glorious St. Joseph, spouse of Mary, grant us thy paternal protection, we beseech thee by the heart of Jesus Christ. O thou, whose power extends to all our necessities and can render possible for us the most impossible things, open thy fatherly eyes to the needs of thy children. In the trouble and distress which afflicts us, we confidently have recourse to thee. Deign to take under thy charitable charge this important and difficult matter, cause of our worries. Make its happy outcome be for God's glory and for the good of His devoted servants. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

... that God knew from all eternity that He could make an innumerable multitude of creatures with different perfections and qualities, to whom He might communicate Himself. He considered that the most excellent communication would be that of uniting Himself to some created nature, in such sort that the creature might be engrafted and implanted in the divinity, and become one single person with it. He also clearly foresaw that the first man would abuse his liberty and forsaking grace would lose glory, yet He would not treat human nature so rigorously as He determined to treat the angelic. He saw that this was a feeble nature. He had regard to the surprise by which the malign and perverse Satan had taken the first man, to the greatness of the temptation which ruined him, and He saw that all the race of men was perishing by the fault of one only. So He had pity on it and admitted it to his mercy. He made Himself the companion of our miseries to make us afterwards companions of His glory, showing thereby the riches of His goodness, so that no man can ever complain as though the divine mercy were wanting to any one.
