St. Francis de Sales thoughts for meditation:

Among all the precepts that God has given us, nothing can be emphasized more than the practice of the love of one's neighbor. This is not because it takes precedence over the love of God, but because our nature finds the love of neighbor difficult and so we are in need of particular encouragement. Therefore, we ought to love one another with all the affection of our hearts in order to please the Heavenly Father; but let us love one another in an orderly way, remembering that reason teaches us to love the soul more than the body. (Sermons 59; O. X, p. 279)

On Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Pope Pius XI, Misericordissimus Redemptor

And truly the spirit of expiation or reparation has always had the first and foremost place in the worship given to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, and nothing is more in keeping with the origin, the character, the power, and the distinctive practices of this form of devotion, as appears from the record of history and custom, as well as from the sacred liturgy and the acts of the Sovereign Pontiffs. For when Christ manifested Himself to Margaret Mary, and declared to her the infinitude of His love, at the same time, in the manner of a mourner, He complained that so many and such great injuries were done to Him by ungrateful men — and we would that these words in which He made this complaint were fixed in the minds of the faithful, and were never blotted out by oblivion: “Behold this Heart” — He said — “which has loved men so much and has loaded them with all benefits, and for this boundless love has had no return but neglect, and contumely, and this often from those who were bound by a debt and duty of a more special love.” In order that these faults might be washed away, He then recommended several things to be done, and in particular the following as most pleasing to Himself, namely that men should approach the Altar with this purpose of expiating sin, making what is called a Communion of Reparation*, — and that they should likewise make expiatory supplications and prayers, prolonged for a whole hour, — which is rightly called the “Holy Hour.” These pious exercises have been approved by the Church and have also been enriched with copious indulgences.

 The Communion of Reparation, commonly done on the first Friday of the month, but could also be done at any time, consists in receiving Holy Communion (in the state of grace, of course) with the intention of making reparation for the sins committed against Our Lord in the most Blessed Sacrament. These sins include irreverence in church, sacrilegious communions, profanation of the Blessed Sacrament, and neglect of this Sacrament.*

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Ps. 26: 1,2,3 The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life: of whom shall I be afraid? Mine enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen. (Ps) If armies in camp should stand to ether against me, my heart shall not fear. Glory be. The Lord is my light...

COLLECT: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the world may be regulated in its course by Thy governance for our peace, and that thy Church may with tranquil devotion rejoice. Through our Lord...

EPISTLE: Rom. 8: 18-23 A reading from the Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject in hope; because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that every creature groaneth, and travaileth in pain, even till now; and not only it, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Ps. 78: 9, 10 Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the Gentiles should at anytime say: Where is their God? Help us, O God, our Savior; and for the honor of Thy name, O Lord, deliver us.

ALLELUIA: Ps. 9: 5, 10 Alleluia, alleluia. O God, Who sittest upon the throne, and judgest justice, be Thou the refuge of the poor in tribulation. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Lk. 5: 1-11 +Continuation of the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke

At that time, when the multitude pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He stood by the lake of Genesareth. And He saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And going up into one of the ships that was Simon's, He desired him to draw back a little from the land: and sitting He taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when He had ceased to speak, He said to Simon: Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon, answering, said to Him: Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing, but at Thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a very great multitude of fishes; and their net broke: and they beckoned to their partners that were in the other ship, that they should come and help them; and they came, and filled both the ships, so that they were almost sinking. Which when Simon Peter saw, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying: Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was wholly astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken: and so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee who were Simon's partners. And Jesus saith to Simon: Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And having brought their ships to land, leaving all things they followed Him.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 12: 4, 5 Enlighten mine eyes, that I never sleep in death, lest at any time mine enemy say: I have prevailed against him.

SECRET: Accept our oblations, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and be appeased by them: and mercifully compel even our rebel wills to turn to Thee. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: Ps. 17: 3 The Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer; my God is my helper.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the mysteries which we have received, we beseech Thee, O Lord, purify us, and fulfill their purpose by defending us. Through our Lord...
