St. Francis de Sales thoughts for meditation:

I have often wondered what was the greatest mortification practiced by the saints, and, after serious reflection, I discovered this: Saint John the Baptist went out into the desert when he was five years old, knowing that his Redeemer had been born and was living not far from him. God alone knows how the heart of Saint John loved his cousin, Jesus, and how much he would have enjoyed His company. All the same, he remained for twenty-five years in the desert without once coming out. Then, after he had left the desert, he settled down to preaching without going to see Jesus, but waited until the Lord came to him. Even after he had baptized Him, he carried on with his mission! He had his spirit entirely detached from everything so as to do God's will and to serve Him. (Letters 234; O. XIII, pp. 366-367)

Saint John the Baptist

From a sermon of St. Ambrose

Elizabeth's full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors rejoiced with her. The birth of a Saint is a joy for many, for it is a good to all. Righteousness is a help to all, and therefore when a righteous man is born it is a heralding of his life, which is still to come, that the helpful excellency of his future should be hailed by the, as it were, prophetic joy of the neighbors. It is well that we should be told concerning the prophet, while he was yet in the womb, that we may know how that Mary was there; but we hear nothing of his childhood, because, we know that it was safe and strong through the nearness of the Lord, Himself then in that womb which was free from the sorrows of pregnancy. And therefore we read in the Gospel nothing touching him save his coming, the annunciation thereof to his father, the leap which he gave in the womb, and his crying in the wilderness.

It was not for him to feel childishness, who beyond all use of nature or of his age, when as yet he lay in his mother's womb, leapt at once unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. Eph. 4:13. It is strange how that the Holy Evangelist has judged meet to tell us that they thought to call the child Zacharias, after the name of his father, that you may notice that the mother would have none of the names whereby their kindred were called, but only that name which the Holy Ghost had dictated, and which the Angel had told before unto Zacharias. The dumb man had certainly not been able to tell his wife by what name to call the child, and Elizabeth must needs have learnt by revelation what she could not have heard from her husband.

His name is John; that is, it is not for us to choose a name now for him to whom God has given a name already. He has a name, which we know, but it is not one of our choosing. To receive a name from God is one of the honors of the Saints. Thus was it that Jacob's name was no more called Jacob but Israel, because he saw God face to face. Gen. 32:28. Thus was it that our Lord Jesus was named before He was born, with a name not given by an Angel, but by the Father. You see that Angels tell that which they have been bidden to tell, not matters of their own choosing. Nor ought you to wonder that Elizabeth named a name which she had not heard, since it had been revealed to her by the same Holy Ghost Who had commanded the Angel to tell it.

Nativity of Saint John the Baptist

INTROIT: Isa 49:1-2 From my mother's womb the Lord called me by me name, and made of me a sharp-edged sword; He concealed me in the shadow of His arm, and made me a polished arrow. Ps 91:2 It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praise to Thy name, Most High. Glory be... From my mother's ...

COLLECTS: O God, Who may this a day most worthy of our celebration because of blessed John; grant Thy people the grace of spiritual joys and direct the minds of all the faithful into the path of eternal salvation. Through our Lord...

Commemoration of the 5th Sunday after Pentecost:

O God, Thou Who hast prepared good things as yet unseen for those who love Thee, pour a burning love into our hearts, so that we, loving Thee in and above all things, may obtain Thy promises which surpass all desire. Through our Lord...

EPISTLE: Isa 49:1-3, 5-7. Hear me, O coastlands, listen, O distant peoples. The Lord called me from birth, from my mother's womb He gave me my name. He made of me a sharp-edged sword and concealed me in the shadow of His arm. He made me a polished arrow, in His quiver He hid me. Thou art My servant, He said to me, Israel, through whom I show My glory. And now says the Lord Who formed me as His servant from the womb, I will make thee a light to the nations, that My salvation may reach to the ends of the earth. When kings shall see thee, they shall stand up, and princes shall prostrate themselves because of the Lord, the Holy One of Israel Who has chosen thee.

GRADUAL: Jer 1:5, 9. Before I formed thee in the womb, I knew thee; and before thou wert born, I dedicated thee. V. The Lord put forth His hand, and touched my mouth, and said to me.

ALLELUIA: Luke 1: 76 Alleluia, alleluia. Thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High; thou shalt go before the Lord to prepare His ways. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 1:57-68. Elizabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified His mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him by his father's name, Zachary. And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John. And they said to her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they kept inquiring by signs of his father what he would have him called. And asking for a writing-tablet he wrote the words, John is his name. And they all marveled. And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he began to speak, blessing God. And fear came on all their neighbors; and all these things were spoken abroad in all the hill country of Judea. And all who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then will this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him. And Zachary his father was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited and wrought redemption for His people.

OFFERTORY: Ps 91:13. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.

SECRETS: We heap Thine altar with gifts, O Lord, celebrating the birth of him who announced the coming of the Savior of the world, our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, and made His presence known. Who livest and reignest...

Commemoration of the 5th Sunday after Pentecost:

Be favorable, O Lord, to our humble prayers, and graciously accept these offerings of Thy servants, that what each has offered to the honor of Thy name may profit for the salvation of all. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: Luke 1:76. Thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways.

POSTCOMMUNIONS: May Thy Church, O God, rejoice at the birth of blessed John the Baptist, through whom she knew the author of her own rebirth, Thy Son, our Lord...

Commemoration of the 5th Sunday after Pentecost:

Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we whom Thou hast filled with the heavenly gift may be cleansed of our hidden sins and delivered from the snares of our enemies. Through our Lord.

PROPER LAST GOSPEL: Mt. 5: 20-24. At that time Jesus said to His disciples: Except your justice abound more than that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter in to the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother: Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say: Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. If therefore thou offer thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee, leave there thine offering before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother; and then coming thou shalt offer the gift.
