Farewell Social—Sunday, July 22nd

For Abbé Christian Juneau

Abbé Juneau, the seminarian who has been with us during this past school year, will be leaving Tucson at the end of July. He will go to St. Louis to help with the ordinations and then will go to the choir camp in Kentucky. After his vacation, he will return to Gricigliano to continue his studies. Canon Avis is very grateful for all the help that Abbé Juneau has been during his stay.

There will be a farewell social for him at 12pm in the church basement on Sunday, July 22nd. There are spiritual bouquet forms in the back of the church for Abbé Juneau.

Canon Avis will be on vacation from July 16th to the 28th. Canon Joel Estrada will be filling in for him.

St. Francis de Sales thoughts for meditation:

Sometimes the Lord desires that our souls be nourished by a firm and unflinching resolution to persevere in serving Him in the spiritual life amid hardships, dryness, repugnances and delusions, deprived of every consolation. Our souls indeed experience no spiritual enjoyment, but believe that they are not worthy of anything except to remain close to their Savior by a courageous spiritual effort, without any support except the Divine Will. This is Your will; how ardently I desire it! (Spiritual Treatises II; O. VI, p. 27)

God Looks Upon Us Lovingly, Notwithstanding Our Weakness

By Saint Francis de Sales

You ask me whether our Lord thinks of you, and whether He looks upon you with love. Yes, He thinks of you, and not only of you, but of the least hair of your head. This is an article of faith. We cannot doubt it. I know well indeed that you do not doubt it, but only express, as you have done the dryness, aridity, and insensibility in which you at present find your soul. Truly God is in, this place, and I knew it not, said Jacob ; that is to say, I had no sentiment of it, it did not appear so to me.

And that God looks upon you with love you have no reason to doubt, for He looks upon the most dreadful sinners in the world lovingly when they have the least true desire to be converted to Him. Tell me, do you not intend to belong to God ? Do you not desire to serve Him faithfully ? And who gave you this desire, this intention, unless Himself in His loving regard for you ?

To examine whether your heart pleases Him is not necessary, but rather whether His heart pleases you. And if you look upon His heart, it is impossible but that it will please you, for it is a Heart most sweet, most kind, most condescending, most gracious towards miserable creatures, provided that they acknowledge their misery. And who will not love this royal Heart, so full of tenderness for us ?

You remark very well that these temptations happen to you because your heart is without tenderness towards God ; for it is quite true that if you had tenderness, you would have consolation, and if you had consolation, you would no longer be in pain. But the love of God does not consist in consolation nor in tenderness, for if it did, then Our Lord would not have loved His Father when He was sad even to death and cried out : My Father my Father , why hast thou abandoned me ? And still it was at that moment He made the greatest act of love which it is possible to conceive.

We would always like to have a little consolation, a little sugar in our tea, that is to say, the feeling of love and tenderness, and consequently consolation ; and in like manner we would much wish to be without imperfections ; but we must have patience to belong to human nature, and not to angelic nature. Our imperfections ought not to please us ; on the contrary, we should say with the holy Apostle : Oh ! miserable me, who will deliver me from this body of death ? But they ought not to astonish us, or to take away our courage ; we ought even to derive submission, humility, and distrust of ourselves from them, but not discouragement, nor affliction of heart, much less doubtfulness of God's love towards us. Thus, as the weakness and infirmity of a child displease its mother, yet she does not cease to love it, but cherishes it with tenderness and compassion, so God, while He approves not of our imperfections and venial sins, does not cease to love us tenderly ; hence David had reason to say to God : Have pity on me, O Lord, for I am weak.

But enough : live joyful ; Our Lord looks upon you with love, and with so much the more tenderness as you are the more feeble. Never permit your mind willingly to entertain thoughts to the contrary ; and when they come, regard them not, turn your eyes away from their iniquity, and have recourse to God with a courageous humility, to speak to Him of His ineffable goodness by which He loves us, poor, abject, and miserable as we are.

Alas ! what obligations we are under to Our Lord, and how much confidence we should have that what His mercy has begun in us it will accomplish, and that He will give such increase to this little vessel of oil, the good-will we have, that all our vessels will be filled with it, and many others belonging to our neighbors too ! But we must close the door of our chamber fast, that is, retire along with our heart more and more into the divine goodness.

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Ps. 47: 10-11, 2 We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple; according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. (Ps) Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of God, in his holy mountain. Glory be. We have received...

COLLECT: Graciously grant to us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the spirit to think and do always such things as are rightful: that we, who cannot exist without Thee, may be enabled to live according to Thy will. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Rom. 8: 12-17 Brethren: we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GRADUAL: Ps. 30: 3; 70: 1 Be Thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of refuge, to save me. In Thee, O God, have I hoped: O Lord, let me never be confounded.

ALLELUIA: Ps. 47: 2 Alleluia, alleluia. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Lk. 16: 1-9 At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him: How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself: What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able; to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I shall be removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore calling together every one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first: How much dost thou owe my lord? But he said: An hundred barrels of oil. And he said to him: Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then he said to another: And how much dost thou owe? Who said: An hundred quarters of wheat. He said to him: Take thy bill, and write eighty. And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say to you: Make unto you friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you shall fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 17: 28, 32 Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but Thou, O Lord?

SECRET: Accept, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts of Thine own bounty, which we bring Thee: that these holy and sacred mysteries may by the working of the power of Thy grace, sanctify us in our conduct of this present life and bring us to everlasting joys.

COMMUNION: Ps. 33: 9 Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

POSTCOMMUNION: May this heavenly mystery avail us, O Lord, for renewal of mind and body: that we may enjoy the fruits of that which we celebrate. Through our Lord.

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants: whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy Precious Blood!
