Hymn of Thanksgiving: Te Deum Laudamus

We praise Thee, O God: we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship Thee: the Father everlasting. To Thee all Angels cry aloud: the heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee the Cherubim and Seraphim cry with unceasing voice: Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory. The glorious choir of the Apostles, The admirable company of the Prophets, The white-robed army of Martyrs praise Thee The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee, The Father of infinite Majesty, Thine adorable, true and only Son, Also the Holy Ghost the Paraclete. Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ. Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father. Thou having taken upon Thee to deliver man didst not abhor the Virgin's womb. Thou having overcome the sting of death didst open to believers the kingdom of heaven. Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father. We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge. We beseech Thee, therefore, help Thy servants: whom Thou has redeemed with Thy precious Blood. Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints in glory everlasting. Lord, save Thy people: and bless Thine inheritance. Govern them and lift them up forever. Day by day we bless Thee. And we praise Thy name forever: and world without end. Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day to keep us without sin. Have mercy on us, O Lord: have mercy on us. Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us: as we have hoped in Thee. O Lord, in Thee have I hoped: let me not be confounded forever.

Thought from St. Francis de Sales

God in His goodness is not satisfied with giving us many graces and favors. He further repays the services we render Him with such excessive generosity that the person who corresponds to a grace disposes himself to receive another; he who corresponds to the second disposes himself to receive the third, and so on. God never fails to do His part. If the soul is faithful in accepting His graces, He gives it more and more. Thus it is an ongoing process. Advancing in this way by faithfully responding to grace, the soul becomes worthy of receiving outstanding graces and of accomplishing great things. (Sermons 40; O. IX, p. 439)

HOLY FAMILY PARISH BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION 2019—SECRETARY

Dear Faithful of Holy Family Parish:

The term of our Parish Board Secretary, Arthur Cordova, expires in January 2020. I have nominated Mr. Cordova for another term in this position and Mr. Cordova has graciously agreed to run again. Mr. Cordova has proven to be a valuable asset to the parish due to his extensive knowledge and experience. I am confident he will continue to be a great help to me as we plan for the future of the parish should he be elected again.

In addition to my nomination, registered members of Holy Family may submit names for the position of secretary by obtaining a total of 10 registered members' signatures and turning them in to the parish office. Nomination forms are available at the back of the church and through the parish office. For more information about the position and the eligibility requirements, please contact the office at holyfamilyparishtucson@gmail.com or call (520)623-6773.

The parish wide election will be held Dec. 14-15 at our Masses. Nominations will close on Friday, Dec. 6 at 5:00 p.m. Only registered parishioners over 18 may nominate a candidate or vote. If you are not sure if you are registered in the parish, please contact the office.

In Christ the King,
Rev. Canon Jonathon Fehrenbacher
Administrator of Holy Family Parish

From the Rector

Dear Faithful,

The upcoming feast of the Immaculate Conception is doubly important for us. Not only is the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest and each member of the Institute consecrated to Our Lady under the title of the Immaculate Conception, but She is also the principal patroness of the United States. To prepare for such an important feast, starting this Saturday Nov. 30th, at each Latin Mass, there will be a Marian Sermon, and following Mass, the Preparatory Novena Prayer, Litany of Our Lady, and Totus Pulchra Es hymn.

Don't miss out on this wonderful novena to rededicate and entrust ourselves to our Blessed Mother. We receive so many blessings through her immaculate hands. Come thank her for so many blessings as we also pray for our families, the Church, our diocese, and our country. Please join us for this time of tremendous grace! To Jesus through Mary!

In Christ the King and Mary,
Canon Jonathon Fehrenbacher

Last Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Jer. 29: 11, 12, 14; Ps. 84:2

The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. (Ps) Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be. The Lord saith: I think...

COLLECT: O Lord, stir up the wills of the faithful that they may be more eager to seek the fruits of divine grace, and to discover in Your mercy greater healing for their sinfulness. Through Our Lord . . .

EPISTLE: Col. 1; 9-14

Brethren: Therefore we also, from the day that we heard it, cease not to pray for you and to beg that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding: That you may walk worthy of God, in all things pleasing; being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God: Strengthened with all might according to the power of his glory, in all patience and long-suffering with joy, giving thanks to God the Father, who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love, in whom we have redemption through his blood, the remission of sins.

GRADUAL: Psalms 43:8-9

Thou hast delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. V.: In God we will glory all the day: and in Thy Name we will give praise for ever.

ALLELUIA: Alleluia, alleluia. V. (Psalm 129:1, 2). From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia

GOSPEL: Matt. 24; 15-35

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "When therefore you shall see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place: he that readeth let him understand. Then they that are in Judea, let them flee to the mountains: And he that is on the housetop, let him not come down to take any thing out of his house: And he that is in the field, let him not go back to take his coat. And woe to them that are with child and that give suck in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter or on the sabbath. For there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, neither shall be. And unless those days had been shortened, no flesh should be saved: but for the sake of the elect those days shall be shortened." Then if any man shall say to you, 'Lo here is Christ,' or 'there': do not believe him. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets and shall shew great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold I have told it to you, beforehand. If therefore they shall say to you, 'Behold he is in the desert': go ye not out. 'Behold he is in the closets': believe it not. For as lightning cometh out of the east and appeareth even into the west: so shall also the cowling of the Son of man be. Wheresoever the body shall be, there shall the eagles also be gathered together." And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened and the moon shall not give her light and the stars shall fall from heaven and the powers of heaven shall be moved. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven. And then shall all tribes of the earth mourn: and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with much power and majesty. And he shall send his angels with a trumpet and a great voice: and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the farthest parts of the heavens to the utmost bounds of them. "And from the fig tree learn a parable: When the branch thereof is now tender and the leaves come forth, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see all these things, know ye that it is nigh, even at the doors. Amen I say to you that this generation shall not pass till all these things be done. Heaven and earth shall pass: but my words shall not pass."

OFFERTORY: Ps. 129: 1,2

Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O Lord, lend a responsive ear to our petitions. Receive the offerings and prayers of Your people, and turn the hearts of us all towards Yourself, so that we may be drawn from earthly desires to the joys of heaven. Through Our Lord . . .

COMMUNION: Mk. 11: 24

Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION: O Lord, cure the evil in our hearts by the healing power of the Sacrament we have received. Through Our Lord . . .

Novena Prayer to the Immaculate Conception

Oh, Virgin Immaculate, * who was pleasing in the Lord's sight * and did become His Mother, * look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy mighty patronage. * The wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, * continues none the less to wage war * and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve. * Ah, do thou, our blessed Mother, * our Queen and Advocate, * who from the first instant of thy conception did crush the head of our enemy, * receive the prayers that we unite singleheartedly to thine * and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, * that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, * in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; * and in the midst of so many dangers * may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere * sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace. * Amen.
