Thought from St. Francis de Sales

My God! When will we receive the grace to have the holy Virgin come and be born in our hearts? For my part I see that I am unworthy of this favor, and certainly you think the same about yourselves. But was not the Divine Son born in a stable? Courage, therefore! Let us prepare a place for Mary. She loves humble places of stark simplicity, yet spacious in charity. She is very happy to stay close to a stable and at the foot of the cross; she was not worried about having to go into exile in Egypt, far from every comfort, so long as she had her Child with her.

(Letters 308; O. XIII, p. 91)

From the Rector's Desk:

Thanks be to God!

We are once again permitted Mass inside the church.

Because of our limited capacity and our small church, it is necessary to SIGN-UP to attend Masses.

For English Mass @ Holy Family please call the parish office (520)623-6773 to reserve a Mass time.

For Latin Mass @ St. Gianna, you must sign-up for the Mass you will attend by a Signup Genius link that you'll be emailed or call the Oratory office (520)883-4360 if you don't have email.

SIGN-UP preference is given to Registered Members. Registration forms are at the back of the church.

- The bishop has made masks mandatory on church grounds and social-distancing of 6 feet is required.
- The obligation of attending Mass is still suspended though Sundays and holy days must remain days of prayer and rest.
- If you or a family member with whom you have regular contact is sick, please stay home. If you're over 65 or have an underlying condition compromising your health, you may consider staying home.
- Please refrain from congregating in the church or outside before and after Mass. Please keep 6 ft. Social Distancing at all times on church property.
- Let us continue to pray the Litany of St. Joseph everyday for our bishop, for our diocese, and for a good resolution soon to the restrictions due to the virus.
- Let us also pray that our world turns from sin. As people of faith, we see this as a divine "wake-up call" to conversion and penance for the many sins committed against Our Lord, the Blessed Sacrament, His Mother, and the Church.

From The Liturgical Year by Dom Gueranger:

Let us celebrate the Nativity of the Virgin Mary; let us adore her Son, Christ our Lord. Such is the invitation addressed to us today by the Church. Let us hearken to her call; let us enter into her overflowing joy. The Bridegroom is at hand, for his throne is now set up on earth; yet a little while, and he will appear in the diadem of our human nature, wherewith his Mother is to crown him on the day of the joy of his heart, and of ours. Today, as on the glorious Assumption, the sacred Canticle is heard; but this time it belongs more to earth than to heaven.

Truly a better Paradise than the first is given us at this hour. Eden, fear no more that man will endeavor to enter thee; thy Cherubim may leave the gates and return to heaven. What are thy beautiful fruits to us, since we cannot touch them without dying? Death is now for those who will not eat of the fruit so soon to appear amid the flowers of the virgin earth to which our God has led us.

Hail, new world, far surpassing in magnificence the first creation! Hail blessed haven, where we find a calm after so many storms! Aurora dawns; the rainbow glitters in the heavens; the dove comes forth; the ark rests upon the earth, offering new destinies to the world. The haven, the aurora, the rainbow, the dove, the ark of salvation, the Paradise of the heavenly Adam, the creation whereof the former was but a shadow: all this art thou, sweet infant, in whom already dwell all grace, all truth, all life.

Thou art the little cloud, which the father of prophets in the suppliant anguish of his soul awaited; and thou bringest refreshment to the parched earth. Under the weakness of thy fragile form, appears the Mother of fair love and of holy hope. Thou art that other light cloud of exquisite fragrance, which our desert sends up to heaven. In the incomparable humility of thy soul, which knows not itself, the Angels, standing like armed warriors around thy cradle, recognize their Queen.

O Tower of the true David; citadel withstanding the first shock of Satan's attack, and breaking all his power; true Sion, founded on the holy mountains, the highest summits of virtue; temple and palace, feebly foreshadowed by those of Solomon; house built by Eternal Wisdom for herself: the faultless lines of thy fair architecture were planned from all eternity. Together with Emmanuel, who predestined thee for his home of delights, thou art thyself, O blessed child, the crowning point of creation, the divine ideal fully realized on earth.

Let us, then, understand the Church when, even on this day, she proclaims thy divine maternity, and unites in her chants of praise the birth of Emmanuel and thine own. He who, being Son of God by essence, willed to be also Son of man, had, before all other designs, decreed that he would have a Mother. Such, consequently, was the primordial, absolute character of that title of mother, that in the eternal decree, it was one with the very being of the chosen creature, the motive and cause of her existence, as well as the source of all her perfections natural and supernatural. We too, then, must recognize thee as Mother, even from thy very cradle, and must celebrate thy birthday by adoring thy Son our Lord.

Mother of God, Queen of heaven, Sovereign of the world, all generations shall call thee blessed, for thou hast brought forth life and glory for all. In thee the Angels ever find their joy, the just find grace, sinners pardon; in thee, and by thee, and from thee, the merciful hand of the Almighty has reformed the first creation.

Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Ps. 83. 10-11 Behold, O God our protector, and look on the face of thy Christ : for better is one day in thy courts above thousands. Ps. 1-2: How lovely are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts : my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord. Glory be. Behold, O God.....

COLLECT: Keep, we beseech thee, O Lord, Thy Church with perpetual peace; and because the frailty of man without Thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by Thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: Gal. 5:16-24 A lesson from the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Galatians

Brethren: Walk in the spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh : for the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh: for these are contrary one to another : so that you do not the things that you would. But if you are led by the spirit, you are not under the Law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest; which are fornication, uncleanness, immodesty, luxury, idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects, envies, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like, of the which I foretell you, as I have foretold to you, that they who do such things shall not obtain the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, longanimity, mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity. Against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified their flesh with the vices and concupiscences.

GRADUAL: Ps. 117: 8-9 It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. It is good to trust in the Lord, rather than to trust in princes.

ALLELUIA: Ps. 94:1 Alleluia, alleluia. Come let us praise the Lord with joy : let us joyfully sing to God our Savior. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mt. 6:24-33 +Continuation of the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will sustain the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you: Be not solicitous for your life, what you shall eat, nor for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than the meat, and the body more than the raiment? Behold the birds of the air; for they neither sow nor do they reap, nor gather into barns, and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not you of much more value than they? And which of you, by taking thought, can add to his stature one cubit? And for raiment, why are you solicitous? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they labor not, neither do they spin. But I say to you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. And, if the grass of the field, which is today, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, God doth so clothe, how much more you, O ye of little faith! Be not solicitous, therefore, saying: What shall we eat, or what shall we drink, or wherewith shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the heathens seek. For your Father knoweth that you have need of all these things. Seek ye therefore first the kingdom of God, and his justice; and all these things shall be added unto you.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 33:8-9 The Angel of the Lord shall encamp round about them that fear Him, and shall deliver them: O taste and see that the Lord is sweet!

SECRET: Grant , we beseech Thee, O Lord, that the saving victim we offer, may both atone for our sins, and propitiate for us Thine almighty power. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Mt. 6:33 Seek first the kingdom of God: and all things shall be added unto you, saith the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION: May thy sacraments, O God, at all times purify and strengthen us, and through them may we attain to eternal salvation. Through our Lord.
