VERITATEM FACIENTES IN CARITATE - LIVING THE TRUTH IN CHARITY

Feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Saturday Nov. 21

“...This loving darling was no sooner born than she began to use her little tongue to sing the praises of the Lord and all her other little members to serve Him. His Divine Goodness inspired her to leave her father and mother's house and go to the Temple, there to serve Him more perfectly. In her parents' house this glorious Virgin comported herself at this early age with so much wisdom and discretion that she astounded her parents so that they concluded, as much by her speech as by her actions, that this child was not like others, but that she had the use of reason, and therefore they should anticipate the time and lead her to the Temple to serve the Lord with the other girls who were there for that purpose. So they took this little Virgin at the age of only three years, leading her, and for part of the way carrying her, to the Temple of Jerusalem....

She must always be before your eyes, my very dear daughters, that you may form your life on hers and make all your actions and affections correspond to hers. You are her daughters. Thus you must follow and imitate her, and make use of her example as of a mirror in which you look at yourself without ceasing. Even though the fragrance which you will receive by looking at and considering the life of Our Lady will fall into a vessel of clay, it will not lack an admirable sweetness, for balm put in earthen vessels is as sweet as that in a crystal vial....

Oh, how happy are the souls who in imitation of this sacred Virgin dedicate themselves like beginners to the service of Our Lord from their youth! Oh, how happy they are for having retired from the world before the world has known them, because, not having been married, and consequently not blighted by the ardor of concupiscence, they give forth an odor of great sweetness by their virtues and good works.”

St. Francis de Sales - Sermon for the Presentation of the B.V.M. to the Sisters of the Visitation - Nov. 21, 1620 A.D.

Thought from St. Francis de Sales

We have no way of knowing whether the good which animates us at present will last for all our life. There is reason to doubt this, as nothing is so weak and subject to change as our will. However, we should not get unduly upset about all this but often present our will to the Lord, placing everything in His hands. Certainly He will keep renewing it as many times as is necessary for the course of our mortal life.

INTROIT:

Jer. 29: 11, 12, 14:

Ps. 84:2 The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. (Psalms) Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be to the Father. The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace...

COLLECT: Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that thinking everything over in our minds, we may accomplish, both in words and works, that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 Thess. 1: 2-10 Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all, making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith and labor and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father: knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election: for our Gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much fullness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that you were made a pattern to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you was spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves relate of us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven (Whom He raised up from the dead), Jesus, Who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GRADUAL: Ps. 43: 8-9 Thou hast saved us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. In God we will glory all the day long: and in Thy name we will give praise for ever. ALLELUIA: Ps. 129: 1,2 Alleluia, alleluia. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mt. 13: 31-35 At that time Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds: but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable He spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables He did not speak to them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying: I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 129: 1,2 Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: May this offering, O God, we beseech Thee, cleanse and renew us, guide and protect us. Through Our Lord.

COMMUNION: Mk. 11: 24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have been fed, O Lord, with heavenly delights, and beseech Thee, that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through Our Lord.
