VERITATEM FACIENTES IN CARITATE - LIVING THE TRUTH IN CHARITY

General Remarks On Indulgences

From the Office of the Apostolic Penitentiary

An indulgence is defined in the Code of Canon Law (can. 992) and in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (n. 1471) as “a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.”

In general, the gaining of indulgences requires certain prescribed conditions, and the performance of certain prescribed works.

To gain indulgences, whether plenary or partial, it is necessary that the faithful be in the state of grace at least at the time the indulgenced work is completed.

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace:

- have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
- have sacramentally confessed their sins;
- receive Holy Communion;
- pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope’s intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Holy Father’s intentions are required for each plenary indulgence. Prayer for the Pope’s intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an “Our Father” and a “Hail Mary” are suggested. The Pope’s intentions are four in number : 1. The progress of the Faith and triumph of the Church; 2. Peace and union among Christian Princes and Rulers; 3. The conversion of sinners; 4. The uprooting of heresy. Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons still living.

During the month of November, dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory, moved by charity for their succor, let us strive to gain as many indulgences as possible for their deliverance from their sins to soon share in the joys of Heaven!

Due to the continuance of Covid-19, the Apostolic Penitentiary has maintained special dispositions for PLENARY INDULGENCES FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY (Decree of Oct 27, 2021) :

- (1) A plenary indulgence applicable only to the souls in purgatory is granted the faithful who on Nov. 2nd, devoutly visit a church or an oratory and recite an Our Father and the Creed, but this year is extended to any day in November each member of the faithful chooses to do the work of the indulgence (with the usual requirements).
- (2) A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory is granted each and every day from Nov 1 to Nov 8, those faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed, but this year is extended to anyone who visits a cemetery, even mentally, on any day in November (with the usual requirements).

Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Let us set out to practice certain virtues that are adapted to our weakness and that have more to do with descending than climbing. They are patience, tolerance, the service of others, humility, gentleness of soul, affinity, putting up with one's imperfections and similar small virtues. I do not say, of course, that at times it is not a good thing to elevate ourselves by means of prayers, but this must be done slowly, slowly.

INTROIT:

Jer. 29: 11, 12, 14;

Ps. 84:2 The

Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace, and not

of affliction: you shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. (Psalm) Lord, Thou hast blessed Thy land: Thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be to the Father. The Lord saith: I think thoughts of peace...

COLLECT: Grant, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that thinking everything over in our minds, we may accomplish, both in words and works, that which is pleasing in Thy sight. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 Thess. 1: 2-10 Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all, making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith and labor and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father: knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election: for our Gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much fullness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that you were made a pattern to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you was spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves relate of us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for His Son from heaven (Whom He raised up from the dead), Jesus, Who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GRADUAL: Ps. 43: 8-9 Thou hast saved us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: and hast put them to shame that hate us. In God we will glory all the day long: and in Thy name we will give praise for ever. ALLELUIA: Ps. 129: 1,2 Alleluia, alleluia. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mt. 13: 31-35 At that time Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds: but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and cometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable He spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables He did not speak to them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying: I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 129: 1,2 Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: May this offering, O God, we beseech Thee, cleanse and renew us, guide and protect us. Through Our Lord.

COMMUNION: Mk. 11: 24 Amen I say to you, whatsoever you ask when you pray, believe that you shall receive and it shall be done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have been fed, O Lord, with heavenly delights, and beseech Thee, that we may ever hunger after those things by which we truly live. Through Our Lord.
